other at a total cost of $17,895 per unit.

The other bidder was Modular Ambulance Co. of Granite City, Prairie, Tex., which submitted an offer of $24,521 on a Type One unit and $18,781 on a Type Two unit.

Chief Parente said the equipment is similar to the Foster Sales unit but at a slightly higher price.

Following receipt of the grant approval, city officials announced Wednesday that St. Elizabeth Hospital authorities have agreed to station one of the new city ambulance units at the hospital.

That ambulance unit will be operated out of an office provided by the hospital and manned by three eight-hour shifts of emergency medical technicians.

Parente said eight men have been assigned to that station. Operation of all the ambulances will be handled by the Granite City Fire Department.

One of the ambulances will be stationed at the main fire station at 23rd Street and Madison Avenue.

It will be operated in conjunction with calls answered by the department's rescue truck in cases involving accidents in which occupants must be extricated, heart attack cases or other matters requiring rescue methods.

Firemen regularly stationed there will operate that ambulance. The third ambulance will operate out of the new city fire station at Richmond Avenue and Johnson Road. Eight men

Ambulance plans complete

Granite City has received final approval of a $56,000 federal grant with which the city will buy four fully-equipped ambulances to initiate emergency ambulance service in the city at midnight next Tuesday night, March 15.

Approval of the allotment representing 70 per cent of the cost of the four ambulances was received Tuesday by Mayor Paul Schuler and Fire Chief Don Parente, who have been spearheading the move to establish emergency ambulance service here at the time private ambulance operators curtail emergency service.

Under authorization granted by the City Council at its March 1 meeting, the council's Traffic Committee headed by Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward will meet in the City Hall Monday evening, March 14, to act on bids submitted by two firms to supply the ambulance units.

The committee will make its recommendation to the council in its Tuesday night meeting. The purchase is expected to be made at that time.

Parente told the Press-Record that he will recommend to the committee the purchase of four 1977 model Dodge "Medicruisers" built by the Wayne Corporation for Foster Coach Sales, Inc., of Sterling, Ill., at a bid price of $18,370 for each of the units.

The bid offer preferred by Parente includes a cost of $15,980 for the cruiser, plus $2,390 for equipment which includes extrication supplies, safeguarding equipment and a stair chair.

The principal noted that the Student tickets went on sale in the school's main office early this morning and the sale was to have halted at one o'clock this afternoon.

"I understand there will be tickets available in Champaign at a cost of $3 per person prior to each game," added Corbin.

The three buses were made available through the efforts of Madison's Board of Education, the First National Bank in Madison, Mayor William Ebersoldt of Venice and Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison, the principal said.

The eyes of the entire state will be on Champaign this weekend as the Class A (750 or less enrollment) high schools decide their state championship.

On and off the record Evangelina safe after quake

A former Granite City resident is among survivors of the earthquake during the weekend that shook Europe, including Romania which is believed to have borne the brunt of the quake, with an estimated 2,000 persons killed in the capital city of Bucharest.

George Evangelina, 31, a 1963 graduate of Granite City High School and a son of Mrs. Mary E. Evangelina of Madison, is assigned under the Fulbright Exchange Program as an English language instructor at a university in Gelatz, Romania, 100 miles northeast of Bucharest.

Mrs. Evangelina told the Press-Record she was apprehensive about the fate of her son until she received a message Monday from the State Department in Washington, D.C., that her son was not hurt.

"Although George teaches far from Bucharest," Mrs.

Evangelina said, "he is off on Friday and usually makes the trip to the capital city to receive mail and visit the American Embassy there."

The quake felt from Rome to Moscow, measured 7.2 on the Richter scale and its epicenter has been pinpointed in Romania.

The disaster began about 9:30 p.m. Bucharest time March 4. High-rise apartment buildings and places of business collapsed as the earth buckled beneath them.

All schools in Romania will be closed for a three-week period to allow teachers and students to serve as volunteers in searching for survivors and to work in hospitals.

Evangelina, who has taught foreign languages in Japan, Spain and Saudi Arabia, has been in Romania for the past two years.

Local or county tax collection—Chouteau issue

Cletus L. Bedwell comments that "as a candidate for the office of Chouteau Township tax collector, I feel I'm qualified by having served the past 16 years as a township auditor."

"I have been a resident and property owner of Chouteau Township for over 24 years."

"I am a charter member of the South Roxana Fire Department, serving as president, captain and assistant fire chief. Also, I am a member of the Madison County and Illinois Firemen's Association."

"I was responsible for getting natural gas in South Roxana and worked on the committee to incorporate the Village of South Roxana."

"I've worked for Laclede Steel Co., Alton, for 29 years, serving 17 years as an elected official of Local Union 3643 United Steelworkers of America, including six years as president."

"I served five years as first vice-president of the Alton-Wood River Area Federation of Labor, and served on the Labor Advisory Committee on Education for Lewis and Clark Junior College, Southern Illinois University and the University of Illinois."

"I'm a member of the South Roxana Assembly of God Church and Masonic Lodge 1062."

"I have been married for 28 years and live with my wife, Frances, and daughter, Shelly, at 800 Missouri, South Roxana. I also have two married sons."

"As tax collector, I would continue to serve the citizens of Chouteau Township in an honest, courteous and efficient manner as I've done as a township auditor for the past 16 years."

"I will continue to make it convenient for the citizens to pay their property tax by being in all areas of the township."

"I will continue a fast and efficient collection, and pay out of the tax monies to all the taxing bodies to save the taxpayers' money."

"By being an auditor for many years and dealing with various budgets, I know the value of having a good township tax collector," he concludes.

Bedwell is a candidate on the Chouteau Township Progressive Party ticket.

WILLIAM THOEKLE

"I am running for an office so that, if elected, I can dissolve that office," reports William H. Thoeke, a candidate for tax collector for Chouteau Township.

Thoeke, owner of the Chain of Rocks Motel, says, "I do not believe in duplication in government. Chouteau Township residents now pay twice for the same service."

"The county government collects almost all of the taxes now and is set up to do it all, and yet we still pay for a local collector."

"A township collector is an unnecessary tax burden. If elected, I will request no budget and will turn the collection of taxes entirely over to the county, which is already being paid to do that job. This will save our citizens from paying extra tax dollars."

Thoeke, his wife, Barbara, and their four sons live in the residence at the Chain of Rocks Motel, which they have owned since 1980.

He was born in Chester, Ill., and moved to St. Louis County in 1943.

He attended Brentwood High School and graduated from the University of Missouri in 1952.

Thoeke then served as a lieutenant during the Korean conflict and was discharged in 1955.

During his employment by Shell Oil Co., he worked in sales in the Illinois area from Edwardsville to Belleville, including the Chouteau Township area.

Thoeke concludes, "A strong township government is essential for good representation."

"If the waste and duplication are pared away, we will have a more efficient township government."

A candidate of the Chouteau Citizens Party, Thoeke serves on the board of directors of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and has been a member of the YMCA board and an officer of the United Boy Scout District.

A past president of the Granite City Rotary Club, he has served on numerous committees of local organizations.

Thoeke was president of the Illinois Innkeepers Association, an organization of chain and independent motor hotels in Illinois, during the 1960s.

A member at various times of the Jaycees, Elks and Mitchell Parent-Teacher Association, he served on the District Eight regional council on tourism and was the organizer and for two years, president of the River Bluffs Motel Association (Madison and St. Clair counties).

Ambulance

Parente said the fourth ambulance will be kept on standby duty to be used in the event of a major disaster, or as a replacement for any of the other three units.

The fire chief said the telephone number to summon a city ambulance has been established as 877-4747.

Calls will be handled with the same number at all ambulance locations, he said.

The fire chief said the grant was given to Granite City for "ambulance service in Granite City" which would mean that the service will not be permitted to make calls outside the city limits, but backup emergency services will be provided in cases where Thomas, Michael's or other firms are unavailable.

The city is keeping in close touch with officials in Nameoki and Chouteau Townships and in Venice, Madison and Ponton Beach, all of which have indicated they will study establishing ambulance service units.

Other areas that establish service and Granite City then would be permitted to work out mutual assistance agreements under which we could assist one another in reaching all parts of the Quad-City area," Parente said.

Thomas Ambulance Service has announced it will continue service with two ambulances. Thomas has notified Granite City that it will back up the city with use of its ambulances in the event of numerous simultaneous calls.

Michael's Ambulance Service in Venice says it serves all parts of the Quad-City area.

At least three ambulances are expected to be delivered to Granite City during the weekend, or on Monday at the latest, Parente said.

Although the Foster Coach Sales did offer two weeks delivery on ambulance unit purchases, the company will provide the city with "loaners" to be used in starting service by the Tuesday night deadline, the fire chief said.

"It is possible the ambulances we receive as loaned units will be the ones we are buying, but they will be rated as 'loaners' until the detailed Council clearance, paper work and method of payment are worked out," Parente noted.

"We have been assured by the company that we will have ambulances available to begin service in Granite City at 12:01 a.m. Wednesday," he added.

Mayor Schuler Wednesday notified officials of A.O. Smith Corp., who had asked that ambulance service be established in West Granite City, that the city "is looking very seriously into providing that service."

The mayor said in a letter to plant officials.

"The city is facing a deadline of March 15 when the present ambulance service will be eliminated, and the primary concern of the city must be to provide the same ambulance service that is being withdrawn by P-T Ambulance Co."

"However, you may rest assured that the city will make every attempt to provide ambulance service to its residents at least equal to or better than that which is being terminated."

Granite City officials agreed to establish emergency ambulance service in late January after the Thomas Ambulance Service, which provided much of the service in this area, notified the city that it intended to cut back its service as of March 15.

The firm cited difficulties in collecting fees and the mounting cost of ambulance service as principal reasons for the cutbacks. At first, Robert Thomas, operator of the service, discussed with officials the possibility of continuing service if a city subsidy could be obtained.

City officials questioned the legality of such a subsidy, however, and Thomas subsequently told the city that his firm had decided to cut back service regardless of any steps that could be taken.

As a result, city officials agreed to seek federal aid to help buy four ambulances.

stances with which to institute ambulance service in Granite City. On the basis of an estimated cost of $80,000 for four, fully-equipped ambulances, the city applied for a $56,000 grant which would provide 70 per cent of the cost.

The funds were sought through the Illinois Department of Public Health under a program providing federal funds for health-related projects administered by the Illinois Department of Transportation. Approval of the grant request by both the health department and DOT was received this week, clearing the way for the city's ambulance service program.

The city has been able to obtain the assignment of 17 Madison County Manpower workers to the ambulance service. All of those employees now are in training as emergency medical technicians in classes being conducted at St. Elizabeth Hospital here.

In preparation for operation of the ambulance service, the City Council has approved an amended budget which projects expenditures of $106,800 from the beginning of the fiscal year on March 16 to April 30, end of the city's present fiscal year when the new 1977-78 budget becomes effective.

That budget includes $80,000 as the initial cost of four ambulances, of which the city's share will be $24,000; $2,000 for essential equipment not covered by the grant; $2,000 for radio equipment; $6,000 for the city's share of payroll for the one and one-half months operation; $450 clothing allowance and $1,700 for uniforms for ambulance attendants' uniforms.

Other items of the budget provide $1,600 for Optimum use in the four ambulances, $500 for gasoline, oil and grease; $500 for telephone service; $400 for office equipment; $6,800 for insurance; $250 for stationary and postage and $2,440 for contingencies.

Parente has projected revenue from ambulance operation will amount to about $12,500 during the one and one-half month period. This sum, along with the $56,000 grant for ambulance purchases, will provide $68,500 of the one and one-half month budget totaling $106,800. This means the city must provide $38,300 of the budget total.

Utility hikes cost for Madison burglar alarms

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk and the City Council of Madison were critical Wednesday evening of an announced rate increase by Illinois Bell Telephone Co. on business burglar alarm lines.

Senior citizen alarms are not included.

On the instructions of the mayor and council the city's legal staff was told to take whatever steps they can to stop what the mayor described as "an unfair, uncalled for and unwarranted increase."

According to Mayor Sasyk, the reason for the increases which in some cases are from 400 to 500 per cent, is that a telephone spokesman told the mayor that the company had not increased the rate in 10 years.

The cost was figured on the distance of the phone line from the police station.

The rate has been $2 for the first one-quarter mile and 70 cents each additional quarter mile.

The new rate will be $10.20 regardless of mileage. Of the approximately 133 business lines affected, the most being charged now is $4.10 on a line charge, and only two of these in Macar's Industrial Park.

The installation charge of a new line also is being increased by the telephone company, according to the mayor, from $10 to $60.

The mayor said: "The city of Madison is probably the poorest in the state of Illinois of initiating a city-wide burglar alarm system. We felt that this program would play a very important role in reducing the crime rate in our area."

"Before we initiate this program we calculated the cost of this system per month to our citizens."

business merchants, based on information supplied to us by one of our local utility companies."

"Based on this information plus the actual cost of purchasing the burglar alarm equipment, we felt we had a package we could sell to our merchants."

"Now that we have sold a majority of our merchants, churches, and schools on this idea, the same utility company has increased its rates as high as 400 per cent. We feel this type of an increase cannot be justified."

Debate Friday; 'warm-up' held

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler and challenger Daniel Partney met in a face-to-face debate before the Granite City Democratic Club at the Knights of Columbus Hall last night in an event which was considered a "warm-up" to tomorrow night's scheduled public debate between the two mayor candidates.

The two will appear at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the South High School cafeteria.

Club members last night submitted written questions which were placed in boxes for each candidate. Following opening statements, the candidates took turns drawing questions from their respective boxes and answering the questions.

Partney drew several sets of duplicate questions which some of the mayor's supporters alleged showed that someone had "stuffed the box."

The duplicate questions concerned council bidding procedures on sewer break repairs, operation of the city's humane shelter, and safety for school children and others along Maryville Road.

Miss Mary Frazz Mobley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mobley of Granite City, was the emcee.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Estel Rucker of Granite City.

The new arrival's maternal great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mobley, live in Erin, Tenn.

Partney spoke on a campaign theme of "get Granite going" and Mayor Schuler responded, "I think Granite City started going May 1, 1973 (when Schuler took office)."

The two candidates also touched on the city using some revenue sharing money to meet payrolls, financing of Maryville Road improvements, economic

"Here we are in the midst of gaining momentum in solving one of our country's number one problems — its ever increasing crime rate — and now we may be unable to continue this program, because of the unreasonably high rate increase by one of our local utility companies."

The mayor instructed the chief of police, city comptroller, the aldermanic police committee and the burglar alarm engineer to research alternative methods of connecting the system with other than Illinois Bell lines.

public schools, graduating from high school in 1952, and has managed and helped to coach youth baseball, basketball, football and soccer teams. He closely follows local high school athletics.

In the Long Lake volunteer fire company, he served as a trustee for three years and president for two years.

A Master Mason in Lodge 877 for 20 years, he is a past master of that lodge, past patron of Eastern Star Chapter 650, a member of Aina Temple and the Tri-City Shrine Club and a past member of the Masonic Temple Association, as well as a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies of Southern Illinois.

He was a member for two years of the Nameoki Township Community Development Committee and was a Cub Scout committee chairman in Mitchell.

Davis comments, "My wife and I made the decision for me to be a candidate for supervisor of Nameoki Township after a great deal of thought and prayer."

"I had been interested in township government for some time and it came to the forefront when six incumbent candidates and a large group of citizens approached me with the thought of heading a new ticket, later called United for Progress."

"They felt that I could give the new leadership needed to give our township some unity among its elected officers and to have an open ear to all segments of the township."

"I know that I will have a lot to learn but I feel that with my background of nine years on the school board, three years as trustee for the Long Lake fire department and serving in numerous capacities in several other organizations, I will be able to perform the duties of the supervisor and move the township forward with the determination that I have always done before in any other job that I undertook."

"Although I think we should use all available government funds, I am a strong believer in local control, such as township government, school boards, etc. and would work against any movement to remove it. Too many decisions controlling our lives are being made in Springfield and Washington as it is."

"Some of the programs the United for Progress Party would like to present to the people of Nameoki Township for their approval are:

"Declaring all-out war on drainage problems in our township. If Nameoki Township is to progress and thrive, emphasis must be placed on providing solutions to drainage problems and I will seek every avenue of available funding to implement programs to that end without additional taxes."

"Federal revenue sharing funds can be used. I share the views of the other candidates of the United for Progress Party that a vast segment of the people has been overlooked, these being the elderly and handicapped."

"We believe that a permanent program should be implemented to aid and assist these forgotten people. An office for coordinating of services for senior citizens and the handicapped will be established."

"Federal revenue sharing funds and the Manpower employees could be utilized to provide services and arrange transportation such as a specially-equipped van, without local tax cost."

"A 'hot line' will be established for prompt communication with these people. Volunteer help will also be utilized."

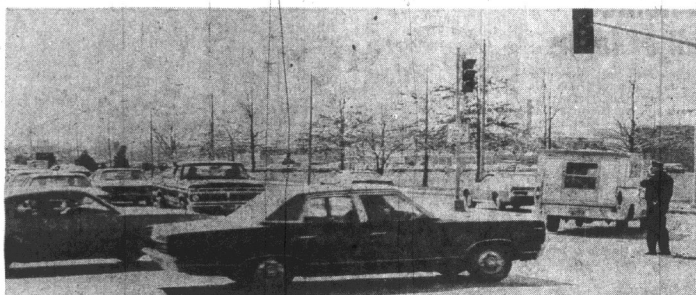

"For the last three years, as a trustee of a fire district, I helped implement a fireplug rental program and we plan to continue such programs of assistance to fire districts, and will work with any area desiring new or additional street lighting."

"No major project involving increased taxes will be implemented without the approval of the taxpayers."

"The taxpayers will be furnished with complete facts and pertinent data in order that they may be able to make their own decisions. The highway department will remain a separate entity of government as set up by statutes."

"We will all work diligently with and assist the highway commissioner for continued improvement of roads," Davis concludes.

INJURED ON BRIDGE
Thomas Senecyn, 27, of 3103 Rogers Ave., was injured when his auto was struck from behind by a truck on the Poplar Street Bridge about 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for an injury to his head, which struck the sun visor, and cuts beneath both knees from striking the dashboard. X-rays were negative and he was released.

Whitsell

Corps Reserve from 1954 to 1964.

Whitsell has five daughters, Debra, Deanna, Cindy, Susan and Judy.

He comments, "I have eight years of experience as a township official with a thorough knowledge of all procedures, plus a genuine and sincere desire to serve the public. In seeking another term of office, I wish to utilize this experience."

"I have personally helped bring Nameoki Township from an obscure and ineffective operation that experienced financial problems, to a strong, thriving unit of local government — by encouraging citizen participation, by sound business management through investments of idle funds, and by paying close attention to state and federal grants that are available to us."

"The office of supervisor is not a sinecure, and I have arranged my life accordingly, to be available everyday. I pledge to continue my full-time dedication."

With this attitude and approach, I have been able to accomplish many programs that no other township in this state has ever attempted before — and, at the same time, to reduce township taxes, even though other local taxes and school taxes have continued to rise."

"Many more things can be accomplished when all elected officials can work together harmoniously."

Projects in which Whitsell has been influential include Maryville School crossing lights, sidewalks connecting with Granite City High School North, provision for sanitary sewers, upgrading of land use and subdivision controls.

Dobrey Slough area improvements, environmental clean-up programs, establishment of county parks and a nature trail, arrangements for funding of fire hydrants, Dawn Avenue drainage repair, drainage pumps, work programs for public aid recipients, opposition to assessment policies.

Also, modernization of the mosquito abatement program, upgrading of animal control through provision of a holding pen and modern truck, arrangements for Horseshoe Lake automatic gates and acquisition of Army surplus equipment for the township.

All witnesses urge foreign trade zone

If a foreign trade zone is established by the Tri-City Regional Port District, it would help materially in attracting foreign companies manufacturing activity to Illinois, it was asserted at a hearing yesterday at St. Louis.

Christine Karger of the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development, voiced strong support of the proposal for this reason.

Hugh Dolan of the U.S. Department of Commerce, hearing board chairman, presided. He said the hearing board will make a recommendation to the U.S. Foreign Trade Zones Board for a decision this summer or fall. No opposition to the zone plan was voiced during the hearing.

John N. Belcoff, Tri-City Port board chairman, testified that a trade zone would fit in well with present port activities and would enhance their effectiveness.

Carl Randt, port manager, said the district is ready and able to operate a foreign trade zone. He noted annual volume here of $100 million in imports and exports.

Seven letters were submitted from firms that say they would utilize such a zone at the Tri-City Port. Additional letters are to be filed with the hearing board during the next 30 days.

Carl Mathias, Illinois Power service area manager, said the zone could lead to new and expanded activity offsetting some of the Madison-St. Clair Counties unemployment.

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler cited a need for new industrial jobs, Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk noted intermodal transportation links and Venice Mayor William M. Ebersold told of new highway links between the local port and St. Louis.

Matthew Melucci, Madison County Board aide, told the gathering of 50 that over a third of U.S. manufactured goods of originates within 500 miles of here.

James Holderread and Joseph DeRota of the St.

Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association told of intense interest by Japanese and European firms in locating in this area if there is a foreign trade zone.

Operation Clean Sweep

Residents of Lincoln Place again are being asked to get ready for "Operation Clean Sweep," a community-wide clean up program set this year on Saturday, March 19.

The project is being organized for the fourth year by Jake "Hagor" Varadian, precinct committeeman.

Residents are urged to clear out their basements and attics of unwanted items and deposit them in the alley at the rear of their homes in advance of Saturday morning, March 19.

Trucks loaned by the city will be used to collect trash and unwanted items.

Although the collection service is provided without cost to Lincoln Place residents, participants are invited to donate 50 cents or more to the project.

The funds will be used to help defray the cost of refreshments furnished the volunteer labor force, Varadian said.

"Regardless of size, our volunteers will be there to haul away your discarded items and help to bring a fresh, new look to spring into our neighborhood," Varadian said.

The Greater St. Louis Bowling Association this week announced four new inductees into the Greater St. Louis Bowling Association Hall of Fame—Norm Meyers, Frank Lucido, William Duggan and the late John H. Ruecker.

Meyers was named for bowling achievements along with Lucido.

Lucido started bowling at the age of 16 in Granite City. In 1964, he won the Missouri all-events and the following year he won the Southern Illinois match game title.

Duggan was elected for service to the organization, while an honorary membership was accorded to Ruecker.

They will be inducted into the Hall of Fame at a dinner dance at Stouffer's Riverfront Inn on Saturday evening, April 16.

Dinner is to be served at 6 p.m., followed immediately by award presentations to South High's wrestling and basketball athletes.

Fire at GC Steel

A fire in a hydraulic oil pit beneath the quarter-inch shear line in the hot rolled finishing department of Granite City Steel at 9:10 p.m. Monday caused damage which caused that line to be closed 32 hours during repairs.

The cause of the fire is not known. Granite City Steel firefighters were unable to control the blaze and sought assistance from Granite City firemen and police.

Granite City firemen were on the scene one hour and five minutes. An employee noted the heat from the fire was so intense that some of the heavy metal parts of the shear line above the pit were bent and twisted by the heat.

Electricians and maintenance employees of the steel company began repairs as soon as the damaged areas cooled and had the line back in operation by 1 a.m. yesterday.

Company officials noted there were no injuries from the fire and commented the electricians and maintenance employees for their quick work in repairing the line in a short period of time.

North girls' cagers at South tonight

The two Granite City High School girls' basketball teams will meet each other in a six o'clock contest this evening in the Granite City Memorial Gymnasium, with Coach Debbie Holt's North squad sporting a 64 record and Coach Pat Yates' South team having a 2-7 mark.

South lost a 47-46 thriller at home last night to Wood River.

2 seek highway post in Chouteau

JAMES ESTES

James Estes, incumbent, is the candidate for highway commissioner of the Chouteau Citizens Party in Chouteau Township.

He has been a lifelong resident of Mitchell. He has three children, Jimmy, Evelyn and Mary Grace.

Estes attended Mitchell Grade School and graduated from Granite City High School. He served with the 4th Marine Division during World War II.

He has been employed as a deputy sheriff in Madison County for the past 15 years.

Estes has served as Chouteau Township highway commissioner for ten years and spent eight years as a labor foreman for the Illinois state highway department.

He has been a voluntary member of the Mitchell Fire Department for 20 years.

Estes is an active member of American Legion Post 113, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300, Amvets Post 51 and Operating Engineers Local 520.

"After having served as highway commissioner of Chouteau Township for the past 10 years, I feel my qualifications speak for themselves," Estes comments.

"I am familiar with the highway conditions within our township and I know how to deal with them. I have repaired and resurfaced our roads yearly, within the limits of my funding."

"During snowy weather, I have had my crews out immediately to clear roads. The residents of Chouteau Township have none of the problems experienced by other communities when bad weather sets in."

"I am always open for ideas concerning highway improvement in our area. I have tried to deal with each situation as impartially and fairly as possible."

"If I am re-elected, it is my desire to not only continue the same services to the township that I have provided in the past, but to continuously upgrade and improve the conditions of our roads."

Cut with razor

Richard Edgar, 18, St. Louis, suffered a six-inch cut to his back and a smaller cut to his left upper arm when a man armed with a straight razor assaulted him at 21st and Adams Streets during the weekend.

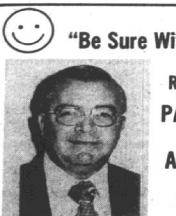

Edgar said he was walking and a blue 1964 Chevrolet stopped beside him and the passenger got out.

The man asked Edgar if his first name is Richard and then stated, "You're dead." He then got out a razor and cut Edgar's back and left arm. The assailant then drove away.

Edgar went to a nearby house and called for an ambulance. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, but declined to be treated.

Hospital authorities alleged Edgar was loud and abusive in his language and attempted to strike and kick hospital and ambulance personnel while screaming and cursing at everyone in the emergency room.

Police charged him with disorderly conduct and took him to the Granite City Jail. Later he was returned to the hospital and was treated and released.

Cold, ice cut river shipments in January

Because of extremely cold weather and an ice-jammed Mississippi River during January, commercial freight shipments through the Chain of Rocks locks and canal were the lightest of any January month during the last two decades, according to a report by the Army Corps of Engineers.

A total of only 797,700 tons of freight passed through the locks during January, compared to a total of 3,946,231 tons during the same month in 1976, the report shows.

For more than two weeks all movements by barges, tows and other vessels were halted between St. Louis and Cairo, Ill., because of an ice jam which also threatened damage to shipping units stalled along the banks of the river.

Downriver movements of freight during January totaled 664,400 tons, including 355,550 tons of grain, while upriver freight shipments totaled 229,300 tons, including 78,700 tons of petroleum products. The report showed that 1,279 vessels passed through the locks during the month, compared to 4,546 during the same period.

A total of 265 lockages was made during the month, compared to 726 during the same month a year ago.

Senior citizen group proposed in Chouteau

Chouteau Township Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks last week issued an open letter on behalf of the Chouteau Town Board of Auditors, inviting senior citizens in the township to form an organization to plan activities in the new township recreation center.

The new building which will house a town hall and a large recreation hall is under construction near the township's highway garage north of Route 279 behind the Midwest Motel. The text of Sparks' open letter to senior citizens follows.

"Our new office building and social and recreation center will be completed early this spring.

"This new building should be a great asset to the senior citizens of our area by providing a place for them to meet and enjoy the relationship they have had with each other in their younger years.

"Also to plan together projects and other functions which they will enjoy, being together and working together as a group of their own age, and doing the things they decide on their own.

"The Chouteau Town Board would like to have all senior citizens take part in organizing a Chouteau Township senior citizens' group.

"We will be able to have people at our first meeting, who have helped organize other groups, to explain the best way to get started and operate the business of the group.

"Also to tell of some of the state and federal funds available to senior citizens' organizations.

"We would like all Chouteau Township senior citizens to call our office between 9 a.m. and noon and 1 and 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, and tell Diane Hartzel, the secretary, that they would like to be notified of the meeting when it is arranged.

"Or write a card or letter asking to have your name put on the list of persons to be notified when the meeting will be held.

"Our address is Chouteau Township, 825 Thorngate Drive. The phone number is 931-0360.

"We are going to have a beautiful new building, so let us get going and have a good senior citizens' group to use it," Sparks concluded.

Passes Oral Boards in Ophthalmology

Michael B. Rumelt, MD, ophthalmologist practicing at 2044 Madison Ave., has been informed by the American Board of Ophthalmology that he has passed the Oral Boards in Ophthalmology.

In addition to Dr. Rumelt's association with St. Elizabeth Hospital, he holds a teaching position at Washington University Department of Ophthalmology and also is on the staff of Missouri Baptist Hospital, St. John's Mercy Hospital and several other St. Louis hospitals.

Dr. Rumelt is chairman of the Health and Public Policy Committee of the St. Louis County Medical Society, a member of the General Assembly of the Health Systems Agency and a delegate to the Missouri State Medical Society. At St. Elizabeth Hospital he currently is a member of the Infection Control Committee and of the Library Committee.

Veterans' rally on scholarships

The Office of Veterans Affairs at SIUE will sponsor a Tuesday, March 15, rally in Springfield for area veterans, in conjunction with state Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion posts, to discuss the Illinois Military Scholarship with state representatives.

Terry Campbell, coordinator of veterans affairs at SIUE, said he was told Gov. James R. Thompson would be willing to meet with veterans this week. Campbell said he declined the invitation because the governor stipulated he would grant an audience of only five members.

He said those going to Springfield will discuss conditions which would enable all veterans in the state to use scholarships, and will express veterans' gratitude for progress legislators have made on the scholarship program.

A bus for the March 15 rally will leave at 9:30 a.m. and return to SIUE at about 6 p.m.

Persons wishing to accompany veterans may sign up for the bus at the Office of Veterans Affairs, Room 1207 in the Rendleman Building.

Fire at tavern

Fire at 5 a.m. Sunday damaged the ceiling and second floor at Hoppe's Tavern, 2807 Edwardsville Road.

Faulty electrical wiring was believed responsible for the fire, which started in the ceiling of the tavern and spread to the walls of the second floor. Firemen were on the scene two hours. No estimates of the extent of damage had been made this morning.

Firemen also extinguished two other fires Sunday, one at 2:45 p.m. at the home of Clifford Hunt, 2220 Elm St., where a gas leak behind the stove was believed responsible for a fire which caused an estimated $300 to walls and paneling in the home. Firemen were there 20 minutes.

A fire at 11:10 a.m. Sunday, caused about $200 damage to the home of Roy Reeves, 705 Twenty-eighth Place, after fire was left burning under a pot on the stove. Most of the damage was caused by smoke and firemen used smoke ejectors for 30 minutes.

WEIGHING IN. Lorraine Brown, LPN, left, a participant in a five-week weight loss clinic at St. Elizabeth Hospital, is weighed by Vanessa Mercer of the Hospital Food Services Department. The hospital this week is observing National Nutrition Week.

Dietitian's work topic of hospital 'Nutrition Week'

During National Nutrition Week, the word "dietitian" is repeatedly mentioned in conversation. Simply by deduction, most persons have an inkling of a dietitian's function but do not realize the relative details of their job.

At St. Elizabeth Hospital, staff dietitians are responsible for advising and planning menus for patients who are not on a general diet. Each day, dietitians discuss menu selections with these particular patients and talk about the respective diet, stressing the relation to the patient's disease.

"We try to mold the diet around the patient's eating habits while still remaining within the necessary dietary requirements. We advise patients of what to eat, what to avoid and when to eat, and we recommend diets and calorie levels," Mrs. Nancy Wargin, registered dietitian, said.

"For a diabetic, for example, we set up a pattern of habits and inform him or her of the various choices among the basic four food groups. In short, we try our best to make the diet modifications as easy as possible for the patient to adjust to," Mrs. Wargin explained.

Reality is an important consideration in planning a diet, she said. A person weighing 300 pounds who is put on a reduction diet can not realistically go on a "crash" diet that limits calorie intake to 500 a day, according to Mrs. Wargin. With the proper advisement, this same person can avoid the discomfort of constant hunger and still lose weight, she said.

"Many patients on reduction diets are surprised when we tell them the amount and of kinds of food they can eat. A person shouldn't be hungry when they're on a diet. There's no reason for it," she said.

In addition to the menu planning and advising, hospital dietitians at St. Elizabeth Hospital advise at diabetes and pre-natal classes.

There are five registered and one contributing dietitian on the St. Elizabeth Hospital staff. Each of the dietitians has a four-year bachelor degree in nutrition or a related field and the registered dietitians have served a nine-month to one year internship prior to passing their registration exam.

Only 75 internship hosts are found nationally. Locally, that includes Fontbonne and St. Louis University hospitals.

Runoff voting for judge post

George Moran Jr. of Granite City is among three attorneys who are in a runoff election for an associate judge post vacated by the resignation of Judge Robert Francis in the Third Judicial Circuit.

Moran, William Haine of Alton and Dennis Brandt of Edwardsville, tied in initial balloting by the district's eight circuit judges to select a new associate judge from 11 applicants.

New ballots listing the three names will be mailed to the circuit judges. The winner must receive a majority of the votes to be selected.

Hearings to stress value of federal school funding

State School Supt. Joseph M. Cronin reports that 19 major education organizations, including the State Board of Education and Illinois Office of Education, are mounting an effort to keep alive federal programs that provide nearly $300 million to school systems in the state.

The education groups are sponsoring nine hearings from March 14 to April 18 to obtain testimony on how the programs are working at the local level, what revisions are needed, and what the impact would be if the programs were discontinued.

The hearings will begin a process designed to provide an Illinois perspective for the state's Congressional delegation, the education committees of Congress and the U. S. Office of Education.

Unless extended, the programs will expire at the end of the 1977-78 fiscal year.

The federal aid programs deal with adult education, environmental education, alcohol and drug abuse, impact of federal facilities on an area, emergency school assistance, education of the handicapped (excluding Public Law 94-142), educational broadcasting, Head Start pre-school programs and the entire Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

Hearing dates and locations are March 14 in Chicago, March 18 in Carbondale, March 22 in Rock Island, March 25 in Joliet, March 28 in Rockford, April 1 in Peoria, April 4 in Wheaton, April 15 in Crystal Lake and April 18 in Decatur. Generally, the hearings will open at 9 a.m. and close at 5:30 p.m.

Each hearing will be hosted by the superintendent of the educational service region in which the hearing is held. Persons intending to offer oral testimony are to contact the appropriate superintendent to schedule their presentations.

For those who prefer it, written statements may be submitted in lieu of oral testimony.

Sponsoring organizations, in addition to the state school board and state education agency, are:

- Illinois Administrators of Special Education
- Illinois Adult Education Association
- Illinois Association of School Administrators

Illinois Association of School Boards

Illinois Association of School Business Officials

Illinois Association of School Librarians

Illinois Association of Superintendents of Educational Service Regions

Illinois Audiovisual Association, Incorporated

Impartial medical panels sought for workmen's compensation cases

The Prayer Breakfast Committee of the Granite City Rotary Club has prepared a nine-point position paper concerning problems allegedly caused by current workmen's compensation laws in the state of Illinois.

The committee will present the paper to the state legislature for consideration. Problems with the existing workmen's compensation laws have been the main topic of several prayer breakfast meetings attended by a cross-section of community leaders.

"It is not the intent of our club or committee to cause hardship of any kind to persons with legitimate claims due to work-related injuries or occupational diseases," Mathias, committee chairman, said.

"Abuses of the laws have skyrocketed insurance premiums to the point that school boards, cities or employers needing the insurance coverage is having difficulty in getting the insurance and paying for it, if they can find a company to write the insurance," Mathias noted.

Text of the position paper is as follows:

"The current Illinois workmen's compensation system provides for untimely processing of claims, excessive awards of sometimes questionable justification, and unnecessary costs for litigation. In addition, it encourages individuals to take unfair advantage of its provisions, and it creates circumstances that will continue to result in escalation of costs.

"While recognizing the need for a fair and equitable system to compensate workers for loss of pay, medical expenses and loss of earning power, it is apparent that the current system goes beyond this with definite disadvantages to all the people of the state.

"The resultant ever-increasing costs places Illinois in an unfair competitive position with other states. Plants will be relocated or expansions will be deferred. Some businesses will close. New business will not be attracted to the state. Jobs will be lost and the earning and purchasing power of the citizens of Illinois will erode.

"There is an urgent and immediate need to revise the current system. The following points are proposed in this regard:

"1. Provide for timely reporting of industrial injuries and illnesses (15 days for injuries; from the time the illness is designated as work-related for occupational diseases).

"2. Establish a one-year time limit for the filing of claims to the Industrial Commission. Continuances may not be granted without specific reasons, such as the introduction of new relative evidence, the need for recuperative time, etc.

"3. Establish an informal pre-hearing conference system for disputed claims, thereby minimizing the need for costly litigation.

"4. Establish regional impartial medical panels from which employers may select for physical examinations, who the arbitrator will use to obtain medical expertise, or who will be used to resolve disputes involving medical opinions. Require arbitrators to consider medical opinions and enjoy them from overruling or ignoring medical evidence without substantive cause.

"5. Provide definitive standards for temporary and permanent disabilities, disfigurements and hearing loss, to define occupational disease and injury and to require that all originate in the workplace, thereby eliminating pre-existing disabilities from consideration for award.

"6. Eliminate awards for insignificant scarring and disfigurement.

"7. Stop payment of excessive awards for permanent partial disability by reducing temporary total and permanent partial benefits not to exceed federal standards proposed by the President's Commission.

"8. Redefine average weekly rates for purpose of determining awards to the average base salary of the claimant.

"9. Provide for a routine procedure for the hearing of complaints with regard to Industrial Commission decisions."

Burglary at Tri-Mor Bowl

More than $1,000 in cash and change was stolen during a burglary at Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Namook Road, which was discovered Monday.

Entry was gained by breaking a chain, padlocks to enter the door handles. A pry bar was believed used.

A door to the office also was pried open, as was the safe. Money was taken from the safe and from cash register drawers.

Padlocks also were pried from several lockers, but nothing is known missing from the lockers.

Macios, Madison assessor rivals

CARL MACIOS

Nameoki Township Assessor Carl Macios is seeking re-election April 5.

He has told the Press-Record, "I believe there is a serious problem now in the assessment of property taxes because of how the property taxes are set up and controlled by the state on the sales ratio system."

"The property owner is now taxed beyond his limits and a large percentage of taxpayers are finding it hard to pay their taxes because of the inflationary spiral of property values."

"If the inflationary spiral continues—and there are indications it will—hardly anyone except the upper class of people will be able to own or buy their home."

"The assessments on property by the sales ratio system need to be changed, to stabilize the property assessment. The only way the change can come about is for the taxpayers to contact their legislators to get legislation passed to change this system."

"A move is on to abolish township government, which in my opinion would be a grave mistake," Macios adds.

"Township government is the grassroots form of government and is where the local taxpayers receive help in getting their problems solved."

"There is too much 'red tape' now in getting problems solved at the state and national levels. If the taxpayer had to get a local problem solved at the state or national level, it would probably be a total disaster."

Macios, who resides at 78 Cambridge Drive, has served as assessor for the four-year term beginning in 1974. He was an auditor of Nameoki Township starting in 1972.

An engineer with McDonnell Douglas Corporation since January 1966, he has been a cost engineer and planner since 1972. A member of the U.S. Coast Guard in 1967-68, he served on the Granite City Board of Education from 1966 to 1976.

He was school board secretary in 1969-70 and president for two one-year terms, 1971-73. He is a charter member of the Parkway Parent-Teacher Association.

Macios and his wife, the former Jo Ann Margulien, were married in 1965.

Their children are Carla, 18, an SIU student, Jo Elaine, 17, and Marc, 15, GCHS North students. Cathleen, 12, a Grigsby Junior High student, and twins, Jo Ann and Julie, eight years old, Parkway School pupils.

He attended Granite City schools, graduating from high school in 1963, and the Missouri School of Mines at Rolla from 1963 to 1966. His memberships included the Triangle Fraternity from professional engineers and architects.

Macios is a member of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church. He was elected as chairman at the original formation in 1969 of the Illinois Large School Districts organization.

LOREN MADISON

Loren Madison, 42, is a candidate for the office of tax assessor of Nameoki Township on the Continued Action Party ticket.

A resident of Nameoki Township for 27 years, he has been employed at Granite City Steel for 22 years and is a member of Local 50, International Chemical Workers of America.

Madison, a widower, resides at 3817 B Street with his two children, Marsha and Donald. He graduated from Granite City High School and attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville on the GI Bill.

He served in the U.S. Army from 1957 to 1959, stationed in Germany.

Long active in civic affairs, Madison was first appointed as a trustee of the Village of Pontoon Beach and then elected in 1975 to that office.

He comments, "During my eight years of service in Pontoon Beach, I have been instrumental in many programs to upgrade the police department and village government in general."

"During three administrations, I have been involved in moving village government from its infant stage with meetings at the fire department and volunteer police department to a full-time professional police department and a thriving village government."

"My pledge is to serve my constituents in a fair and equal manner."

"I am aware that there are gross inequities in Nameoki Township assessments, due to valuations of property made by the present assessor," Madison charges.

"I am also aware of the inconvenience to the public of having the assessor's office in the basement of a family home. My office will be located at the Township Hall, open every day and available to our taxpayers."

"As assessor, I will attend all schools and programs related to the job to learn new ways to protect the people I serve."

"With my local government experience and close relationship with the township supervisor, I feel that together we can promote growth of the township and a lower tax assessment."

Select the nursery school

By DARLENE HEER
Home Economics Advisor
Looking for a nursery school for your preschooler? Here are some pointers to help you choose the one that's best for your child.
First, think about why you want the child to attend a preschool program and what kind of program you want. How should the child benefit from this experience? Does the child need playmates? Does the youngster need help in learning how to play and get along with others? Or, does the preschooler need learning activities in preparation for school?

Some programs are basically play oriented. Some provide structured social experiences. Others concentrate on intellectual tasks. Choose the school that provides the experiences and special setting your child needs.

No matter how good its reputation, the school may not be suited to your child. Children are different. One environment is not necessarily best for all.

Visit several schools while they are in session. Talk to the teachers and to several parents with children enrolled in the program. And closely observe the way the adults relate to the children, to how the children respond and to the kinds of experiences provided.
Other factors to consider include the cost and the days and hours the school is open. A good preschool program need not be expensive. Cooperative programs where parents share the work by helping teachers are less expensive than others. And a cooperative nursery can provide valuable learning experiences for parents and children. But parents must have time available to participate in the program.

Also determine how often your child would attend. A child who attends only a few hours each week may find it difficult to break the barriers of small social cliches, which form even among preschoolers.

The preschool your best friend sends her youngsters to may not be the right one for your child. Consider the child's needs and visit several to give you a basis for comparison before making your selection.

Trojans gain momentum with 72-48 triumph over Robinson

The Madison High School Trojan basketball team has earned its way — in spectacular fashion — into the "elite eight" teams which will compete in the Illinois Class A state basketball tournament Friday and Saturday at Champaign.

The Trojans, under the guidance of Coach Larry Graham, scored a decisive 72-48 victory over the Robinson Maroons in super-sectional competition at Charleston Tuesday night to earn the right to vie in the state tourney.

Madison will meet Morrisson High School in the opening round of the state tournament Friday. Morrisson has had 20 wins and five losses this year to the Trojans' 26 and three.

Randall Jones, the Trojans' 6-foot 5-inch senior forward, had a sparkling night in the super-sectional game sinking 11 field goals in 19 attempts to lead Madison scoring with 22 points.

Center Rodney Davis, a 6-3 senior, tallied 18 points on nine of 20 field goal attempts. Davis excelled in rebounds with 13.

Pointmakers included Anthony King 12, Clayton Harris eight, Ron Williams six, James Heard four and Ron Morris, two.

Quarter scores were 12-8, 34-23 and 46-36.

Nearly the first minute of the game went scoreless until Jones sank a 10-footer from near the baseline. Jones scored 15 seconds later on a layup after a quick pass from Anthony King.

Robinson's Randy Rich, who scored 12 points in the game, tallied on a rebound shot. Jones then drove to mid lane and sank a 10-foot shot, and Eric Leggett of Robinson brought his team back within two points, 6-4, on his way to a 21-point evening.

Madison's Williams sank a 15-footer, but Robinson retaliated on a basket by Rich. Harris hit from the right on a 15-footer and Jones sank a 13-footer from the left before Leggett scored.

With two seconds remaining in the first period, King drove the ball the length of the floor and brought the score to 14-8 with a layup.

A confident Trojan team returned to the floor for the second period and Harris was the first to score, hitting from the inside lane.

Rich made two free throws but Jones quickly scored from the baseline and Harris followed with a shot from the head of the key to give Madison a 20-10 lead.

The Maroons surged to a 20-17 score and Graham called a timeout. When play resumed, Davis scored with a layup with 3:30 left in the first half, and came back to score from the side of the lane, increasing the Madison edge to 24-17.

Leggett missed a free throw after Jones fouled, and Jones missed a 10-foot baseline fadeaway shot.

Davis followed, stealing the ball and sinking it for a 28-17 edge.

Leggett scored for Robinson from deep in the corner. Jones caught a rebound and sank it, Leggett hit from the head of the key, and Jones connected from the inside lane to bring the score to 32-21 with 1:37 remaining in the half.

Davis fouled and Leggett netted two free throws, but with two seconds left in the period Ron Williams took a pass from King and made a layup.

Madison tried 41 field goal attempts in the first half sinking 17, while Robinson attempted 28 and tallied nine. Madison also led in rebounds at the half, 24-13, but Robinson remained within striking distance.

The crowd, estimated at 4,800 by tournament officials, was entertained by the cheerleaders of both schools before the second half.

King hit an 18-footer from the right side, but Robinson began a comeback.

Don Lachenmayr, 6-8 center, and James Kelley scored and Kelley sank a free throw to bring the Maroons within eight, at 36-28.

Jones tipped in the ball on a rebound, and Robinson's Keith Reynolds let loose a 20-footer which swished directly through the hoop.

After Davis took a pass from Jones and put it in to bring the score to 40-30, Robinson moved close on a 20-footer by Leggett and a 10-foot turnaround shot by Lachenmayr.

King hit from 18 feet to aid Madison's cause, but Keith Reynolds of the Maroons meshed a 20-footer for a 42-36 score.

King then stole the ball from under the Robinson net and charged to the baseline to score. A series of misses by both squad followed.

After a brief stall by the Trojans, King drove in and scored a 12-footer, making the score 46-36 with one quarter remaining.

Madison virtually put the game out of reach in a 100-second span, adding eight points to its lead as Jones hit a layup, Davis an 18-footer, Davis again on a layup after the King's fast-break pass, and Heard on a length-of-the-court drive and layup.

The scoring spree gave Madison an 18-point edge, 54-36. Rich added two for Robinson on a layup, and Ron Williams took a pass from King and scored.

Leggett hit a 12-footer, countered by a shot by Davis from the inside lane, and Leggett hit from the side of the key. King drove through the Robinson defense for a 10-footer to make it 60-42.

Jones opened the lead to 20 points with a rebound layup with 4:11 remaining on the clock, but then fouled.

Lachenmayr missed his two free throws, and missed given a third on a lane violation. He also missed the third and Madison brought the ball downcourt to score as Jones passed to Davis under the basket.

Rich sank two free throws for Robinson. Davis matched them two points with a close shot from the right side and Madison led 66-44 with three minutes remaining. Davis hit again 19 seconds later from deep in the corner and Morris followed 17 seconds later with a shot from the baseline for a 70-44 lead.

With 2:08 remaining, David Fehrenbacher scored from the inside lane and at 1:37 Reynolds tallied from the corner to bring Robinson within 22 points, 70-48.

Harris was the last to score, stealing the ball and succeeding with a layup with 38 seconds to be played. Morris fouled, but Robinson's John Swanner missed his free throw with six seconds remaining in the game.

Madison then took control of the ball and held it until the final buzzer.

Overall, Madison attempted 76 field goals, netting 56, while Robinson sank 20 of 53.

The Trojans had 46 rebounds to 20 for the Maroons and Madison fouled 12 times while Robinson players were called for six fouls.

The caution of the Robinson players did not allow any Madison player the opportunity to reach the free throw line. The Maroons were successful in eight of the 13 free throws they attempted.

There were 12 personal fouls called against Madison players to six against Robinson. Madison had 18 turnovers and Robinson 14.

The Trojans had 12 steals to five for the opponents. Among those playing for Madison were DeRodney Chocheil, Lloyd Williams, Kenny Boyd, Lawrence London and Sylvester Collins.

At the game-ending buzzer, Madison fans ran onto the court to congratulate their team.

Many held fingers aloft showing a "V" for victory, and other shouted, "We're going to state," and "We're number one."

The Lantz gymnasium of Eastern Illinois University at Charleston was slow to empty after the final buzzer, as many fans remained on the floor for up to 20 minutes, savoring the victory and eyeing the final score still on the scoreboard.

Robinson finished its 1976-77 season with a 23-6 record. Coach Graham commented after the game, "Our press really hurt them and we were able to adjust to their defense.

"Robinson is the best shooting team that we have played against all year, but our quickness kept us in the ball game and we were able to dominate the boards against the big, 6-8 player."

"We were able to get the ball to Jones and he went right to the big man."

"This was a big win for us because we have the momentum now to help us win the Class A championship."

Madison vs. Morrison on Friday night

Can Madison High School win its first-ever Illinois state basketball championship? The answer will be known by 10 p.m. Saturday.

Sporting one of the best statistical records of the "elite eight" Class A entries at Champaign, Madison (26-3) will oppose Morrison (20-5) at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow.

A quarterfinal win would send the local Trojans against Eldorado (20-11) or Pleasant Plains (28-2) at 1:45 p.m. Saturday.

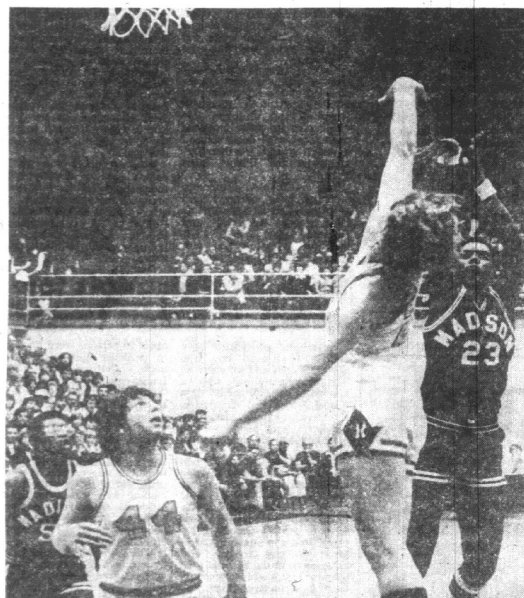

Depending on the outcome of the semifinal game, MHS then (providing it had beaten Morrison) would play for either third place at 7 p.m. Saturday or for the championship at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

Quarterfinal foes include Booneville (17-11) and Aurora Central (21-9) at 12:15 p.m. Friday, Crescent City (29-1) and Mount Pulaski (27-2) at 1:45 p.m. tomorrow, Eldorado-Pleasant Plains at 7 p.m. Friday and the Madison-Morrison game at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

PACING THE FLOOR. Trojan Coach Larry Graham remains fretful to the final buzzer at Tuesday's super-sectional game, despite a lead which exceeded 10 points throughout the fourth quarter and which rose to 24 points by the end of the game. (Press-Record Photo)

Union rejects second offer by A. O. Smith

A federal mediator of the U.S. Conciliation and Mediation Service at St. Louis today joined in negotiations between officials of the A.O. Smith Corp. auto frame plant and the United Auto Workers local 1715 in an effort to reach a new working agreement.

Negotiation sessions continued today at the Round Table Restaurant at Collinsville after the union committee rejected a second proposal by the company on Wednesday.

The company and the union are attempting to resolve disagreements over wages and benefits before a strike deadline at midnight Monday, night March 14.

Union members voted 961 to 7 in a meeting Sunday to strike if a new contract was not agreed upon within a week. Union officials gave the company a seven-day strike notice Tuesday morning.

The strike vote was taken after union members rejected a company proposal. Willard Herzing, president of the union local, said a second proposal was submitted in negotiations Monday and Tuesday. It was rejected Wednesday.

The federal mediator will sit in on today's negotiations and further meetings through the weekend if they are necessary. Herzing said little progress has been apparent in wage and benefit talks since the strike notice was delivered.

Union officials have declined comment in the contract disagreement.

Area hospital, schools active in tornado drill

Large and small communities in Illinois and Missouri participated yesterday in a two-state tornado drill which saw emergency disaster units and warning sirens activated at 10:15 a.m.

Locally, Granite City's network of warning signals were sounded. Emergency plans were implemented at St. Elizabeth Hospital and children left classrooms for safer locations upon a message being flashed by the National Weather Service and the Illinois State Police.

The full-scale tornado exercise was planned and coordinated through the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency (ESDA-Civil Defense) in conjunction with the Missouri Civil Defense and the National Weather Service. Each school participated in the drill with students moved away from outside walls, windows and large rooms with roofs not supported in the center, such as gymnasiums.

Bernard T. Pinney, St. Elizabeth Hospital safety and security director, said the drill delayed its regular drill, conducted on the first Tuesday of each month, to take part in Wednesday's test exercise.

With exception of a traffic control problem developing in the entrance lobbies and other areas of the ground floor, all other aspects of the hospital's Phase III emergency procedures plan worked extremely well, Pinney said today.

Seek trial as adult for youth who shot teacher

Collinsville authorities have said a 16-year-old boy who allegedly shot and wounded an assistant principal and a student at the Collinsville High School Greenwood campus in Collinsville Monday has confessed to both shootings and attempts will be made to try him as an adult.

Assistant Principal Ronald Ganschietz, 39, a former teacher and counselor from 1969 to 1970 in the Venice public schools, is recuperating in Belleville Memorial Hospital from a gunshot wound to his chest, and the student, Laura Massena, was treated and released from the hospital with a minor injury. Ganschietz is listed in serious condition.

The shooting occurred at 12:35 p.m. Monday near where about 20 persons were lined up to purchase tickets for last night's Collinsville-East St. Louis regional basketball game.

It is believed the juvenile who fired the shots had been suspended from the school about a week ago for skipping classes, but was requested to return to school Monday to meet with school officials attempting to gather information on some drug traffic in the school, including four cases in which students appeared to have taken too much of a drug and required hospital treatment, officials disclosed.

After being questioned twice by a school official, the youth was believed to have left the school, gotten a gun and his motorcycle and returned to the school.

GIRL SCOUTING MEMBERSHIP is the subject of this discussion of the 1977 Madison-Venice area "friends of Girl Scouting" member drive. Left to right are Mesdames Margaret Lee, Julia Voloski and Winnie Sasyk.

Friends of Girl Scout solicitation

Three area residents have been recently appointed Madison-Venice co-chairmen for the 1977 "Friends of Girl Scouting" membership drive of the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council. They are Mesdames Margaret Lee, Winnie Sasyk and Julia Voloski.

Since the founding of Girl Scouting in 1912, millions of girls have studied "simple but powerful lessons of living honestly and fairly, respecting others, giving service, becoming good citizens and learning to do one's best," a spokesman said.

"Girl Scouting makes a definite difference in each girl—her attitudes about herself, her family and friends, and her community."

River Bluffs serves 14,000 girls in six counties with a leadership team of over 2,100 adult volunteers. There are 160 girls and 36 adults participating in Madison and Venice.

The cost to provide scouting services exceeds $15.16 per girl, according to the most recent cost study. Much of this need is met by the United Way groups and by approved product sales, and the remainder is sought through "friends of Girl Scouting."

Services to girls include maintaining area camps and camping equipment free of charge to girls, recruiting and training qualified leaders, recruiting girls from hard-to-reach areas, maintaining a financial assistance program, and offering a day camping and resident camping program.

Each "friend" enrollment helps to insure that these services are maintained and that scouting continues in the Madison-Venice area, the co-chairmen said.

THEFT FROM A VAN

A $130 car stereo and 15 tape recordings valued at a total of $115 were stolen from the van of Aaron Graham, 2508 Propes Ave., parked at the Granite City Steel lot, 20th and Nash streets, it was discovered Monday. There were no signs of forced entry.

Children's course in theater

The department of theater and dance at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will offer a course in children's theater during the spring quarter.

Section I of Introduction to Children's Theater (THEA 410A-4) will meet Tuesday and Thursdays from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. Section II will meet Tuesdays from 5:30 to 8:20 p.m.

This introductory course focuses on the theory and practice of creative drama, not only as a process, but as an educational tool. Students will explore the relationship of creative drama to play and the arts, looking at how it can enrich the imagination and integrate the individual's intellectual, physical and emotional resources.

Since creative drama is not acting, but doing, this course can be of value to anyone who will be interacting with people, including teachers, recreation leaders, counselors, or parents, a school official said. A process-oriented focus stresses human values rather than artistic talent. Additional information concerning this course or other courses offered by the SIUE department of theater and dance may be obtained by telephoning (618) 692-2773.

LOOT, DAMAGE PICKUP
A $168 citizens' band radio, a $49 microphone, a $50 speaker and a $10 reflector kit were stolen from the pickup truck of Richard Ficker Sr., 3008 Denver St., parked at 19th Street and Edison Avenue, it was reported at 5 p.m. Monday.

She has sold nearly three million posters, beating out pinup superstars such as The Fonz, John Travolta, Raquel Welch, Elton John — and even her own husband, Six Million Dollar Man, Lee Majors.

Miss Corrie was released at 2:18 a.m. Tuesday by Pontoon Beach police on notice to appear on charges of running a stop sign, improper lane change, attempting to elude a policeman, reckless driving, illegal transportation (no license), no driver's license, having only one taillight and having no license plates.

The chase, which included Fairmont City police and Madison County Sheriff's deputies, in addition to Pontoon Beach police, ended several miles and ended near a west-bound ramp onto Interstate 55-70 when the car ran down an embankment and stopped.

The chase started, according to a Pontoon Beach police, at 11:16 p.m. Monday, when officers saw a car with no license plates on Lake Drive and attempted to stop it by turning on the red lights.

The driver drove onto Highway 111 and stopped to pickup two hitchhikers. As Pontoon Beach police pulled in behind the car, it sped away.

The two juveniles in the car, who were hitchhiking, were taken home by authorities.

Rape prevention speakers at dinner

Momentum appears to be gathering in two serious problems for women — rape and obscene telephone calls — and the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club will devote its dinner program Wednesday, March 16, to hearing speakers on both subjects. All working women in the Quad-City area are invited to attend the dinner and program, starting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at Charlie's Restaurant. Reservations may be made through Sunday by calling Mrs. Betty Nugent, chairman, at 876-6338 or Mrs. Lois Wetton, at 877-3438, after 6 p.m. Judy McNeilly and Barbara Harris, members of the Crisis Intervention Program currently being established on the Edwardsville campus of Southern Illinois University to aid victims of rape and sexual abuse, will speak on the subject "Rape." Both women are graduate students working toward master's degrees at SIUE and are active in rape prevention programs. Rosalie Stern, an employee of Bell Telephone Co. and a BPW member, will discuss techniques to use in eliminating and discouraging obscene phone calls. "We believe this is an important program for all women in the community to hear," Mrs. Sylvia Wright, BPW club president, said.

Film captions for hearing impaired

"The Life of Joseph" is the title of a film to be shown at 7 p.m. Saturday at Mount Zion General Baptist Church, 21st and Benton streets. The movie is captioned for the hearing impaired. The public is invited to attend, with a special welcome extended to deaf and hard-of-hearing persons in the community. The Rev. Donald Clark pastor, said. Refreshments will be served following the program. No admission fee will be charged, the minister said.

Missionary to tell 'Story of Ethiopia'

The Rev. Ernie Eskelin, director of development for the Assemblies of God Missions in Ethiopia, will speak at morning and evening worship services Sunday at Tri-City Park Tabernacle Church, 2501 Clark Ave.

Pastor J. Albert Calaway said the public is invited to hear the missionary officer, who is now giving full time to introducing the new Ethiopian project to churches throughout the country.

As part of his assignment, the Rev. Eskelin is attempting to raise about $120,000 to construct a Christian Center in Addis Ababa. The center proposal includes a Bible college, junior college and evangelistic center. Local church members and guests may hear the Rev. Eskelin at 9:45 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday.

The missionary will describe the "amazing series of events" which led to a breakthrough in East Africa when the government of Ethiopia approved a proposal by the Division of Foreign Missions of the Assemblies of God Church to send its first missionaries to Ethiopia.

The Rev. Eskelin has visited the East African nation on six occasions in the past five years. Twice he was a guest at official functions honoring the late Emperor Haile Selassie, and he made many contacts with high government leaders.

Approval to establish a mission there appeared imminent when the 3,000-year-old kingdom suddenly was overthrown and a new government came into power and all contacts were lost, the Rev. Eskelin said. He returned to Ethiopia and was surprised to find the mission proposal still pending, as the new government was searching for ways to advance the education of its people.

Official approval was granted two years ago and the Assemblies of God Church began implementing plans to build the Christian center. The first missionaries are now in Ethiopia, the Rev. Eskelin reported.

Area residents interested in hearing the Rev. Eskelin speak are invited to attend either service on Sunday, Pastor Calaway said. The missionary director also may be contacted by writing: 2700 NE 135th St., North Miami, Fla. 33181.

Regional post to Hartbarger

SCA Services, Inc., a Boston-based company whose shares are traded publicly on the New York Stock Exchange, has named Kenneth S. Hartbarger of Granite City as a regional director.

Hartbarger is president of MAL Landfill Corp. and heads the Milam East Division, both owned by SCA Services. In his new position, he will direct all of SCA's operations in Southern Illinois and the St. Louis metropolitan area.

Hartbarger, a local businessman for many years, resides with his wife, Gay, and daughter Marilyn, at 601 East Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell. According to Tom Viola, president of SCA Services, "Mr. Hartbarger is an outstanding business leader and I feel confident that his elevation in our company will be a great asset to the shareholders and a particular help to me."

Hartbarger is a native of Virginia, was educated in Virginia and Kentucky schools, and studied at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is an honorary member of the Valdosta State College Debate Forum.

Hartbarger was honorably discharged from the U.S. Army in 1946 after serving in the European Theater. He received several medals and special commendations.

His memberships and affiliations, in addition to numerous trade associations, include: Tri-Cities, Edwardsville and East St. Louis Chambers of Commerce; Greater St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association; and Engineers' Local 520.

He is a "friend of scouting" and is a council member at large of the Cahokia Mound Council. Hartbarger recently was presented the leadership member award of the Boy Scouts of America.

Hartbarger has sponsored many local sports groups. Also active in lodge work, he served as an officer of the Moose Lodge 272 in the early 1960's.

Hartbarger is a Baptist and continues his membership at the Kers Creek Baptist Church near his Virginia home.

Board filling deadline near Persons planning to run for their school boards have just a short time left to file nominating papers, reminds the Illinois Association of School Boards.

March 18 is the deadline for elections to be held on Saturday, April 9.

Forms essential for filing are available from each school board secretary.

General information on how to run for the school board is contained in a small booklet available from IASB at no charge.

Called "Your School Board and You," the booklet also reviews the role and responsibilities of school boards, what it takes to be a good board member, how to prepare for board membership, and how a school board should function.

The booklet is written in plain language for all citizens interested in schools, as well as for school board candidates. To get a free copy of "Your School Board and You," Quad-Cityans may send their name and address to IASB, Box 4404, Springfield, Ill. 62708. Bulk quantities are available at no cost to clubs and organizations.

Humanism instruction

The SIUE department of English language and literature will offer a course in comparative humanism during the spring quarter. Daniel Havens, chairman, said the classes (ENGL 499-4) will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:30 until 8:20 p.m.

No prerequisites are necessary. Students will be required to attend all lectures and write a final paper on some aspect of the coursework. Ten professors, each a specialist in his field, will lecture on selected topics of classical influence on several disciplines, including Western philosophy, art, music, history, science, mathematics, business, mythology and language.

Some of the topics to be discussed during the lectures include: Latin and Greek influence on English vocabulary and on the Romance languages; Thucydides as the inspiration for Toynbee's theory of history; classical mythology as a religious phenomenon, and classicism and music.

Lecturers also will explore deductive reasoning from Euclid to Godel, bureaucracy in the Roman Empire in comparison to the Washington bureaucracy, and a discussion of classical and classicist elements of the themes and style of late 15th and early 16th century painting and sculpture.

Frohardt family history told

Ralph E. Frohardt, former principal of Coolidge Junior High School, gave an illustrated lecture on "The Role of the Frohardt Family in the History of Granite City" at last week's meeting of Travelers Abroad.

The group met at Prather Junior High School with Alfred C. Sioever, president, in charge.

In the early 1880's, Frohardt related, the two Niedringhaus brothers, F. G. and William F., had a small factory in St. Louis, where they manufactured iron pots and pans which were sold from house to house.

William F. became ill and returned to Germany. There he visited a factory in which kitchen ware was treated by a heating and dipping process to protect it from rust.

Upon returning to St. Louis, he and his brother decided to establish a similar factory, but in Illinois, rather than in St. Louis.

On a vast stretch of farmland, which is now Granite City, they laid out plans for a new city, and soon hired a large number of construction workers, whom they housed with their families in temporary dwellings, Frohardt said.

Being paternalistic by nature, the Niedringhaus brothers resolved in 1884 to establish a school for the workers' children, and to engage as the schoolmaster L. P. Frohardt, with whom they had become acquainted at German Methodist College in Warren, Mo.

In 1894, on the ground floor of an old church building, the present site of Emerson School, Frohardt opened the first public school in Granite City, teaching himself as sole teacher of 32 pupils.

In March 1896, when the population had reached 1,000, the city received its charter with the name of Granite City.

The Niedringhaus brothers had originally decided to name their city Niedringhaus.

After considerable reflection, however, they decided as the city's chief product was to be kitchenware, and their kitchenware's unique feature was a coating, consisting partly of granite stone, this feature should be the city's name.

The incorporated area extended from 16th to 21st streets, and from the railway tracks to Quincy Street.

In 1899, Frohardt established the first classes for high school instruction. A few citizens said he was doing this solely because his eldest son had just finished the eighth grade. Others criticized him for building himself a new residence outside of the city limits, the house which is now 2223 Delmar Ave.

The first high school building, McKinley School at Iowa Street and Niedringhaus Avenue, built in 1907, was outgrown within seven years and a new structure was erected at 21st Street and Delmar Avenue.

This, too, was outgrown within seven years, so a separate community high school district was created and a new high school was built well outside the city limits.

Frohardt showed numerous slides of scenes which even the oldest residents had almost forgotten, including the school and other buildings which were washed away by the great flood of 1903, the mule-drawn ferry to Gabaret Island, the Frohardt family seated at the dinner table, the many horse-drawn vehicles, the vast net of electric wires, most of which are now underground, the volunteer fire department and the six uniformed policemen who patrolled Granite City on horseback.

Also shown was a silver dollar which Homer Frohardt, the eldest son, had mailed to his

Revival at Church of Nazarene

The Rev. William E. Varian, an elder and evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene, will conduct revival services starting Tuesday, March 15, at the First Church of the Nazarene, 4701 Highway 111.

Services will be held each evening Tuesday through Saturday, March 19, all commencing at 7:30, and on Sunday, March 20, the final day, at 10:30 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Rev. William H. Roddy, pastor of the local church, said the public is invited to attend all of the revival programs.

Special music will be furnished by James and Rosemary Green of Canton, Ill., evangelists, singers and musicians.

The Rev. Green was educated at Olivet Nazarene College in Kankakee and served two years as music director of the First Church of the Nazarene in Louisville, Ky.

His wife, Rosemary, plays the organ and piano. In many services the Greens feature an "on the spot" request period, playing favorite hymns and gospel songs.

The couple does choral arranging, directs revivals and camp meetings and sings duets and solo numbers.

The Rev. Varian is now devoting full time to the ministry of evangelism, the Rev. Roddy said.

A graduate of Eastern

REV. WILLIAM VARIAN Evangelist

Nazarene College, Wollaston, Mass., the Rev. Varian began his ministry as a pastor in Ohio. Later he moved to Michigan and also served as pastor of Chicago First Church of the Nazarene and at Kankakee (Ill.) First Church of the Nazarene.

For many years, the Rev. Varian has been active in youth work. While on the Michigan District staff, he served as NYP's president.

The evangelist also has conducted youth revivals and camps throughout the central-western states.

Carl Mathias, service area manager for Illinois Power Co., spoke at the Ladies' Coterie meeting held last week at the First United Presbyterian Church.

He defined the energy problems facing the area and gave an educational and informational program in relation to understanding the crisis in the future, according to the members. An open discussion was held after his presentation.

Mrs. G. E. Halyama was hostess for the day and welcomed 23 members.

Presiding at the business discussions was Mrs. Floyd Henley, president. The club collect was led by Mrs. C. L. Lewis and the pledge of allegiance was given by Mrs. David Friedman.

The President's Tea will be held at the March 17 meeting to honor all past presidents, it was announced.

Mrs. James Fox offered the Lord's prayer in closing.

New Life Center's anniversary

Four gospel singing groups will help celebrate the first anniversary of the New Life Singing Center, East 25th and August streets, at a "Benefit Sing" at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

The public is invited to attend the free concert at the center, according to Norman Fenton, director.

Featured on the program will be The Berry Singers of Fredericktown, Mo.; The Reynolds Family of Florissant, Mo.; The Beacon Lights from Granite City, and The Harvesters of St. Louis.

The New Life Singing Center opened in March 1976.

Lambda state convention March 25-27

Area teachers will be among approximately 1,000 delegates attending the Lambda (Illinois) State Convention of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International to be held at Stouffer's Riverfront Towers in St. Louis, March 25 to 27.

The organization is an honor society consisting of women teachers in the United States and several foreign countries.

The theme for the Illinois convention is "Tomorrow's bridge is built today." Each speaker and program participant is a member of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society. Among the featured speakers is Mrs. Celeste Stiehl of Belleville, serving her second term in the Illinois House of Representatives and the first woman legislator in Illinois history to be chosen for a position of leadership in that organization.

She will speak at the Sunday morning breakfast on "The Educational Challenge—Do We All Share Common Goals?" Another state legislator, Sarah Weddington of the Texas House of Representatives, will address the Saturday evening Presidents' banquet on "Together We Form a Firm Foundation."

Miss Anna Belle Hamilton, Northeast regional director and international visitor in the organization, will speak twice to the State Executive Board Saturday morning on "Building for the Future," and at the birthday luncheon that noon on "Golden Bridges."

At a recent meeting of the Madison County Coordinating Council, plans for local participation in the convention were discussed. Mrs. Marilyn Weidner of Edwardsville is president, and Mrs. Agnes Fryntko of Granite City is secretary of the council. The council is made up of representatives from the three area chapters—Alpha Eta, Beta Eta, and Gamma Epsilon.

Friday evening activities will include the awarding of state scholarships and a musical program, "Come to the 1994 World's Fair," presented by members of the three local chapters under the direction of Mrs. Valerie Stevens, state music chairman, and a music teacher in the Madison schools.

Brownies given awards at tea

Brownies were recognized with awards at a mother and daughter tea held by Brownie Troop 389 at Washington School.

Receiving three Bicentennial patches, a discover patch and a year pin were: Sheila Noel, Tammy Wroten, Jeanette Teachener, Kristie Elmore, Sherrie Valencia, Michelle Wheatley and Bridget Polley.

Patty Haney was invested as a member and appointed to the financial assistance advisory panels of the Illinois Arts Council.

Vicky Holt of the staff of the Mississippi River Festival will serve on the dance panel; Hollis L. White, of the office of the dean of the School of Fine Arts

On Arts Council panel

Three faculty and staff members of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have been named to the financial assistance advisory panels of the Illinois Arts Council.

Vicky Holt of the staff of the Mississippi River Festival will serve on the dance panel; Hollis L. White, of the office of the dean of the School of Fine Arts and Communications is on the music panel, and Peter L. Simpson, assistant to the president, is on the literature panel.

The advisory panels are made up of professionals in dance, theater, music, community arts councils, visual arts, literature, public media, film and multi-arts.

The panels meet to review applications for financial assistance from Illinois arts organizations, and make recommendations to the council as to the level of funding the requests receive. Panel members also advise both council and staff members of the Illinois Arts Council or programs and services to further promote the arts in Illinois.

Panel members serve for one year terms. A complete list of panel members may be obtained from Marianne Coplan, public information officer, at the council offices.

Moore to command Airlift

Secretary of Defense Harold Brown announced Monday that President Jimmy Carter has nominated Lt. Gen. William G. Moore Jr. for promotion to general and assignment as commander-in-chief, Military Airlift Command, and executive director for the Airlift Service, Scott Air Force Base near Belleville.

Gen. Moore, 56, is currently assigned as the Air Force assistant vice chief of staff, with additional duty as the senior Air Force member of the Military Staff Committee of the United Nations.

He will succeed Gen. Paul K. Carlton, who is retiring March 31.

Gen. Moore is a command pilot and a combat veteran of three wars, with 100 missions flown during World War II and the Korean War and more than 150 missions in Vietnam. He has commanded at the squadron, group, wing, air division and numbered Air Force levels during his military career.

His career started in 1940 when he enlisted in the Army Air Corps as an aviation cadet. He was commissioned in May 1941 and during World War II commanded a bombardment squadron in Italy.

He commanded the 3rd Bombardment Group in Korea. He later served in a variety of command and staff assignments, including the reactivation and command of the 654th Air Division at Tan Son Nhut Airfield in Vietnam, where he was responsible for tactical airlift.

He assumed duties as director of Operational Requirements and Development Plans deputy chief of staff for research and development, at the Air Force Headquarters in December 1967.

Gen. Moore gained Military Airlift Command experience beginning in February 1970 when he became commander of MAC's 22nd Air Force at Travis Air Force Base, Calif.

In September 1972, he was named commander of the 13th Air Force, responsible for U.S. Air Force units in Taiwan, Thailand and the Philippines. He personally greeted all returning prisoners of war from Hanoi and South Vietnam.

He also completed an assignment as chief of staff of the Pacific Command before assuming his present assignment in Washington last October.

Wilma Veizer, Sarah Metcalf, Louis Tonsor, Louise Smith and Angie Ashcraft of the Auxiliary Health Careers and Scholarship Committee arranged the tour, which was conducted by Rebecca Slate, volunteer coordinator.

ROBERT W. LUCKERT of Granite City, a supervisory supply cataloguer with the U.S. Army Aviation Systems Command (AVSCOM), receives a Sustained Superior Performance Award from Colonel Kenneth E. Lewi, director for materiel management. The award was presented in ceremonies at AVSCOM Headquarters in downtown St. Louis. AVSCOM is responsible for the development, purchase, supply and maintenance of all Army aircraft and aviation equipment.

Program for more to become self-sufficient

A second annual comprehensive social services plan — designed to help people become more self-sufficient and more capable of self-support — has been proposed by the Illinois Department of Public Aid.

The plan, prepared to comply with federal regulations governing Title XX of the Social Security Act, defines the program of social services that will be available to eligible Illinois citizens effective July 1, 1977.

It allocates over $200 million for those services during the 1978 federal fiscal year (Oct. 1, 1977-Sept. 30, 1978). For the state program year (July 1, 1977-June 30, 1978), the amount is over $199 million.

Public Aid Director Arthur F. Quern advised the Press-Record today that Title XX permits the state to design its own program of services according to the particular needs of its population, and allows for greater public participation in the planning process.

The proposed plan makes 31 social services available to persons and families receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and State Supplemental Payments (SSP). The latter benefits the aged, blind, and disabled in Illinois. A provision of the plan also makes services available to individuals with limited income.

The 31 categories proposed in the new plan include care and housekeeping services, day training for special needs, education and training, family planning, health and financial management, legal, social and rehabilitative services, transitional placement and transportation.

New laws affect '76 income tax

Several key changes in the tax laws affect taxpayers preparing their returns for 1976.

The Illinois State Bar Association has devised the following checklist to assist in the preparation of returns:

1. Carefully read instructions to learn how the new tax laws may affect you.

2. Review your checkbook and paid receipts to collect records of all possible deductions. Total all deductions to see if they are greater than the standard deduction, which has been increased this year to $2400 for single persons, $2800 for married persons filing jointly and for surviving spouses, and $1400 for married persons filing separate returns.

3. A general tax credit is available to all taxpayers, up to a maximum of $180. Also check for other credits available for the elderly, for child care or disabled dependent care, for income taxpayers, and for political contributions. Credits, which reduce the actual amount of the tax owed, are available whether or not the taxpayer itemizes deductions.

4. If you itemize deductions, remember to deduct last year's

Illinois income tax, other applicable taxes, health care insurance premiums and health care expenses, interest payments, charitable contributions, alimony payments (but not child support), work related educational expenses, union dues, special work clothing, and casualty or theft losses.

5. Complete the federal return first, and then begin the Illinois income tax return, since the Illinois return is based on the income reported on the federal return.

6. Carefully check your arithmetic, and make sure all applicable blanks are filled in correctly. The IRS reports that the majority of mistakes that delay the processing of returns are small technical errors.

7. Remember to attach the necessary W-2 forms to both the federal and state returns, and sign the returns.

The Illinois State Bar Association says, "If you are uncertain about preparing your return, you should seek professional assistance. If you have questions or need copies of tax forms, contact the Internal Revenue Service."

Use of 'cancer drug' to be meeting topic

Legislative Research Associates, an independent group of Illinois citizens, will hold a statewide meeting at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Heritage House in Springfield, according to Erwin Wein, an area member.

The public is invited to attend the session, which will feature Dr. Alex Peros as guest speaker.

Dr. Peros will discuss the subject, "Legalization of Laetril," a drug unavailable in the United States, but used and advocated by many cancer patients.

The speaker is a proponent of a "freedom of choice in the use of Laetril between a physician and his patient without third party interference," Wein explained.

Illinois legislators have been invited to attend Saturday's meeting. All other persons also are welcome to attend, Wein said.

Further information may be obtained by calling Wein, at 1-288-7206 (evenings), or Marilyn Lunsford, at 876-5821.

Tax seizure ordered at restaurant

Assets of Palms Northgate Restaurant, Inc., of Collinsville were ordered seized by the Illinois Department of Revenue during the weekend.

A warrant for seizure of assets to recover $4,740 in delinquent state sales taxes was delivered to the Madison County sheriff. The seizure order was part of a continuing Revenue Department effort to collect delinquent taxes.

The seizure warrant was issued under the provisions of Section 5(f) of the Illinois Retailers' Occupation Tax Act. The law permits seizure and sale of assets of a retailer who fails to remit to the state the sales taxes he collects from his customer.

The law provides that property seized for taxes can be sold at public auction if the tax bill remains unpaid for 20 days after the warrant is issued. Proceeds from the sale are applied to the tax debt, penalties and interest and any fees incurred by the sheriff in executing the warrant.

Don't delay college forms, students told

Due to lateness in distribution of Illinois State Scholarship Commission (ISSC) financial aid materials to college-bound high schools students, some students have postponed their college application process, a decision that could create additional problems for the student.

That is the analysis of the Millikin University (Decatur) assistant director of admissions, Bryce Boston, who says students should proceed with making applications for college admission although they may not yet know the status of their ISSC applications.

"Because the forms were later in being mailed to high schools than previously, analysis of financial aid applications to the state may be running as much as three months behind a year ago," Boston said. "Rather than wait for the results from the state analysis, students should go ahead and apply for admission immediately."

"Late application for admission will have implications for the student's college housing, his curriculum scheduling and, perhaps, for his admission status."

Boston notes that Millikin, for example, can develop a tentative financial aid package on all accepted students without waiting for the ISSC results.

"This procedure enables the student to continue with his college plans, work out his course of study, and receive some indication of his financial aid package. It also enables Millikin to reserve space for the student in the dormitory and in an academic program with an attractive student-faculty ratio."

"Once the ISSC report is received, a firm financial aid package can then be completed. By this means, the student is assured of enrollment and hasn't taken unnecessary risks while awaiting the ISSC report."

Boston said there is an increasing danger that financial aid funds will become depleted before some students complete the application process.

Although Millikin has its own scholarship programs to assist eligible students, Boston notes that competition, he said, "At Millikin, we had a record enrollment again last fall and are finding it beneficial for students to apply for admission as soon as they have decided to attend college."

"Our small class size, the central location of the university, our financial aid programs and the quality of our faculty and academic programs are obvious reasons for our growth," he said. "Many are impressed with our placement record and recognize the opportunities for internships and other types of practical experience."

An applicant to Millikin must rank in the upper half of his graduating class and have scored satisfactorily on the American College Testing program.

EXPLORER PRESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION (EPA) plans series of events and meetings for members of Explorer posts in the Cahokia Mound Council at a meeting Monday evening. From left, clockwise around the table, are Carol Fehrmann, Mary Gnaedinger, Kevin M. Sabo, Dr. Thomas Layloff, Thomas Hooks, Gary Daniels, Robbie Schwarz, Gary Graville, Gary Brashear,

Explorer presidents plan area activities

Plans for a councilwide Explorer training conference in addition to a road rally, dance and olympics were made Monday evening at a meeting of the Explorer Presidents' Association (EPA) of the Cahokia Mound Council.

Representatives of local Explorer posts met at the Granite City Press-Record office.

Robbie Schwarz, president of Post 79, secretary of the EPA, acted as chairman of the meeting in the absence of Shay Davis, president.

The group reviewed the recent Area Three Conference held in Collinsville.

According to Schwarz, the EPA feels it was an excellent conference overall and believed the address by Illinois Lt. Gov. Dave O'Neal was a highlight of the event.

The major criticism of the EPA toward the entire conference centered in the voting procedures for Area Three chairman.

Those attending the session contended that the St. Louis Area Council candidate won the election by having several delegates from the post allege they were registered with more than one post. Election officials were criticized for upholding the election of the St. Louis council candidate without a more thorough investigation.

Schwarz said the Cahokia Mound Council did not have a candidate in the election. Bruce Rotter of the Cahokia Mound Council and current Area Three chairman did not seek reelection.

The EPA set April 29, 30 and May 1 for a councilwide Explorer planning and training conference at Camp Sagan.

Each post will camp as individual units with training sessions in money-earning projects, post program capabilities, officers training, planning activities and super activities. The event will be open to all post members within the council.

The EPA voted to conduct councilwide activities including an Explorer Olympics in September to be hosted by Post 79, sponsored by the Korte Construction Co., Highland; a dance in January 1978 to be hosted by Explorer Post 10-4 sponsored by Madison Police Unit 110, and a Safe Driving Road Rally in April 1978, hosted by Explorer Post 10-33 sponsored by the Granite City Police Department.

Dr. Thomas Layloff, vice-chairman of the Council Explorer Committee for Activities, and Thomas Hooks, adviser to the Council EPA, were present at the meeting, along with the following post presidents and representatives:

Carol Fehrmann, Mary Gnaedinger, Kevin M. Sabo, Gary Daniels, Gary Graville, Susan Schaffner, Gary Brashear, Dean Deibert, Dave Dawson, Mary Swillum, Mark Gasser, and Chris Champion.

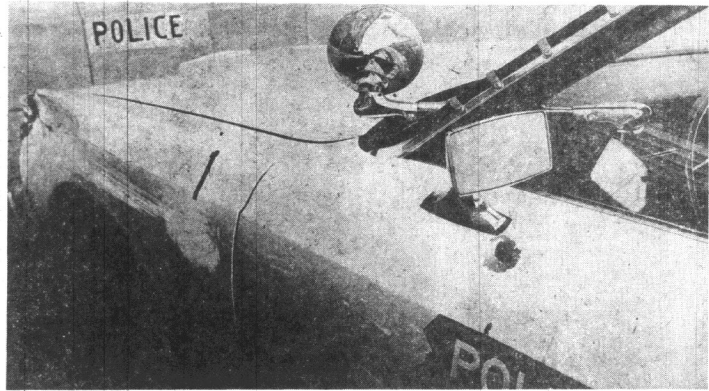

Dr. Thomas Layloff, vice-chairman of the Council Explorer Committee for Activities, and Thomas Hooks, adviser to the Council EPA, were present at the meeting, along with the following post presidents and representatives:

Jackie Resnikoff, MRF staff assistant, said all area high schools are welcome to send representatives to help organize the council. A feature of the meeting will be a presentation of "Encore," a film about the festival.

The meeting will be from 10 a.m. until noon in the International Room of the University Center.

Ward said more than 40 regional high school representatives have indicated an interest in becoming involved with the advisory council, but only a few persons were able to attend the first meeting Feb. 26 because of snow and hazardous driving conditions.

Members of the council will be invited to share program ideas and general plans for the ninth annual festival, scheduled in June, July and August. The eight-week series of music, then a parked car. Patrolman David Anderson fired the shot as the youth started driving away from him. The youth faces seven charges, including auto theft, in connection with the case. The charges will be heard in juvenile court.

Air board hears reports

An application by the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board for a $26,526 federal grant which is sought annually to finance enforcement procedures of the agency has an approved status with three agencies, the board was told in a regular meeting Monday night.

The grant application has been approved by the East-West

Gateway Coordinating Council, the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission and the Illinois State Clearing agency, it was reported during the meeting. The grant usually receives final federal approval in June.

The Air Pollution Control Board is operating on a current budget of $68,872.

Attending Monday's board meeting were Board Members Bill Rotter, Alderman Frank Greenwald and Harold Fischer; Ted Macies, technical secretary; Casmer Skubish, pollution control inspector; Jim Henry, acting control engineer, and John Stier, technician.

A definite improvement in air quality has become apparent in recent months and there were no citizen complaints received during January, the board was told.

1st 'All-City Choral Festival' March 19

The first annual "All-City Choral Festival" will take place at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, March 19, in Memorial Gymnasium at Granite City High School South.

Dr. Leonard Van Camp, director of choral activities at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will be the guest conductor.

Performing on the program will be 90 members of the Granite City elementary school chorus, the combined Coolidge, Grigsby and Prather Junior high school choruses and the advanced mixed choruses from Granite City High School North and South.

A varied program of sacred and secular music will be presented, ending with a Van Camp arrangement of "America," sung by the entire 90-member group.

Tickets costing 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children and students, may be purchased in advance from members of any participating choral group, or may be obtained at the door the evening of the performance.

Scott sues GM

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott this week charged General Motors Corporation with violating the Illinois Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Trade Practices Act in selling 1977 Oldsmobile automobiles containing Chevrolet engines without specifically informing purchasers of the substitution.

Scott is seeking a court order to force GM to replace the altered cars with ones having the original factory Olds engine, or to otherwise satisfy the customers.

He alleged that more than 43,000 1977 Olds were equipped with Chevrolet engines in sales made nationwide. Scott said he wants to determine how many such sales were made in Illinois.

In a suit filed in Cook County Circuit Court, Scott asks for a court order requiring the Oldsmobile Division to identify all Illinois purchasers so that these consumers may obtain adjustments. He said there is approximately a $175 difference between the two engines.

Scott said consumers should be able to obtain Olds replacement engines or refunds on the price differential or, if they choose, to return the entire car for a 1977 Olds with an original factory Olds engine. He alleged that failure to inform customers is a material concealment and a deception under the Illinois law. He is asking the court for a $50,000 civil penalty.

Scott said this week's action is part of a major auto sales and auto repair investigation which he launched on Jan. 12 of this year. After the announcement of the investigation, a purchaser, Joseph Siwek, Chicago, filed a complaint with the attorney general's Consumer Fraud and Protection Division on Jan. 19 alleging that his recently-purchased 1977 Olds Delta Royale Custom was equipped with a Chevrolet 350-horsepower engine.

Zone Manager M. L. Carter of the Oakbrook, Ill., office replied that mass engine substitutions were made, but said the firm reserves the right to make adjustments.

Kathy Shemwell on honor roll

The Greenville College scholastic honor roll for the first semester of the 1976-77 academic year includes Kathy Shemwell, daughter of James Shemwell, 2500 Angela Drive, Granite City. She is a sophomore majoring in physical education.

Miss Shemwell has maintained an honor listing for a minimum of three consecutive semesters and is therefore known as a college scholar.

To place on the dean's list, juniors and seniors are required a grade point average of 3.50 for the semester. Freshmen and sophomores must have an average of 3.25. Grades are calculated from a possible 4.00.

Greenville College, located in the city of Greenville, Illinois, is in its 85th year. Recent reaccreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education underscore the quality of post secondary education that has been provided in a Christian environment during these years.

MRF council to meet

A meeting of the Mississippi River Festival High School Advisory Council has been rescheduled for Saturday, March 12, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, according to Lyle W. Ward, managing director of the festival.

The meeting will be from 10 a.m. until noon in the International Room of the University Center.

Ward said more than 40 regional high school representatives have indicated an interest in becoming involved with the advisory council, but only a few persons were able to attend the first meeting Feb. 26 because of snow and hazardous driving conditions.

Members of the council will be invited to share program ideas and general plans for the ninth annual festival, scheduled in June, July and August. The eight-week series of music, dance, theater and film programs is held on the SIUE campus.

Jackie Resnikoff, MRF staff assistant, said all area high schools are welcome to send representatives to help organize the council. A feature of the meeting will be a presentation of "Encore," a film about the festival.

New steel pipe facilities here cited by railroad

Norfolk and Western Railway's acquisition last spring of trackage owned by the former Penn Central Transportation Company helped to make 1976 a good year for industrial development, which thrived in the Quad-Cities and elsewhere, the rail carrier reported Friday.

As a result of the acquisitions, NW is now serving 27 new industrial plants and facilities in Ohio and Indiana, as well as many existing industrial areas, said John L. Cowan, vice president - sales. The railroad expects to handle over 5,100 carloads of freight annually for the new shippers.

In addition to these gained through the reorganization of bankrupt rail carriers in the Northeastern United States, decisions to construct 68 other plants and expand 32 existing ones now served by Norfolk and Western were reached during the past year.

Announced investment for the new and expanded facilities was $198,700,000, approximately $39 million more than for the prior year.

About 3,500 new jobs are expected to be created through this industrial activity over the next five years.

"These new facilities and the shippers we gained through our acquisition of trackage last year should generate nearly 45,000 carloads of additional freight traffic annually," Cowan said.

"The Norfolk and Western expects to receive $21,400,000 in gross revenues annually when these new plants become fully operational."

Among the major new facilities and industrial expansions located on NW last year were a truck production plant at Norfolk, Va., a grain processing plant at Tipton, Ind., a battery plant at Muncie, Ind., and two steel pipe facilities in the Madison, Ill., area, Cowan noted.

Real estate sales and rental income for NW totaled $6.4 million.

Ohio led all states with 38 new or expanded facilities. Other states were Virginia with 20, Illinois with 19, Indiana with 16, Missouri with 15, Michigan with nine, West Virginia with seven, North Carolina with two, and Kentucky and Iowa with one each.

Students hear history of Madison County

The history of Madison County was the topic of Mrs. Louise Lewis, Madison Librarian who spoke to the third-grade classes of Mrs. Rita Barnard and Mrs. Lois Brazil at the Harris School in Madison.

Mrs. Lewis also told students of historical places they may visit in Illinois, such as the Madison County Museum in Edwardsville, a Wood River monument where an Indian massacre took place and Cahokia Mounds Park.

Mrs. Lewis used pictures and maps as she talked to the third graders on events that have taken place in the area.

Mrs. Lewis' appearance was arranged by Mrs. Donna Woodward, staff member of the SIUE Teacher Corps in Madison, as part of the Volunteers in Public Schools Projects of the Teacher Corps, designed to increase community involvement with the schools.

Woman beaten, hospitalized

Mrs. Shirley Wallace, 4734 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, was severely beaten and struck with a gun butt during incidents in Pontoon Beach and Granite City Monday.

Police questioned a 46-year-old Pontoon Beach man in connection with the beatings, but released him without charges being filed.

Mrs. Wallace alleged the man first beat her with a gun in a mobile home about 1:30 p.m. Monday. She went to a friend's home and alleged he came to that home, threatened the resident there and then struck her with a gun, cut her right thigh twice with a knife, beat her with his fist and kicked her.

She also charged that he forced her to go with him to an apartment at 21st and State streets where he loaded the gun. When she said she wanted to go to the hospital, she told officers. She was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

A man was arrested at 7:50 p.m. Monday at 21st and State streets and police alleged finding a pocket knife in his pocket and blood on his clothing. He was dismissed when the victim declined to sign complaints against him, police said.

Now, Tell City has built the help right into this High n' Easy Rocker. Runners are flatter, have a backstop. So it won't rock back as far. Won't tilt forward when you put weight on the arms. You can push going up, brake going down. Seat is higher, too, so you don't go down as far. It's comfortable, too—with a high back to lean your head against. And curved spindles to fit your spine. Just right for less active people who want a rocker that's less active. Buy it for someone you love. Even if that someone is you.

Crime against elderly to be SIUE radio topic

WSIE-FM (88.7), the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville radio station, will broadcast a five-part series on crime against the elderly during the week of March 14. The programs will be aired each day at 4 p.m.

According to a recent Harris survey, the fear of criminal attack is now the major concern of the nation's elderly. Part of the hostile climate can be blamed on the changing family structure that has left the old without the traditional support of friends and family.

"There's a lot more fear of crime than there is crime," Harry Fleischman, executive director of the National Alliance for Senior Citizens, said. But that fear has forced many inner-city senior citizens to spend their lives behind locked doors. In street slang crimes against the elderly are often called "crib jobs," because they are like taking candy from a baby. They are increasing in the slum areas of major cities, where teenage hoodlums have singled out old people as the easiest marks for robberies and muggings.

Some police and community groups have responded to the problem by organizing block patrols, special surveillance units, and other crime prevention programs.

During the week, the programs will examine violent and non-violent crimes against the elderly, the community and police response, and alter natives for avoiding crime.

March of Dimes Walkathon date

Approval was given last week by the City Council of Granite City to stage a March of Dimes Walkathon on Sunday, April 17, under the supervision of the police department.

Permission for the fund raising activity was sought from the council by Jack Haug, Walkathon chairman and a counselor at Prather Junior High School.

Primarily attracting junior high, high school and college-age youth, the Walkathon enables the young people to become involved in helping others while having fun, Haug said.

For the past few years, Granite City has raised more money than any other community in Madison County in support of the March of Dimes, he said.

Route of the Walkathon virtually is the same as last year. Marchers will depart from Wilson Park along Pehling Road to Nameoki Road, across to Jill Avenue, along Jill to St. Clair and Maryville Road to Terminal Avenue.

Along Terminal to Victory Drive, then south on Nameoki Road to East 23rd Street. West to Lee Avenue to 20th Street to Niedringhaus Avenue. North on Madison Avenue to Wilson Park and the conclusion of the march.

GO-CART IS STOLEN
Ewing Thomason, 5425 Evergreen Ave., Mitchell, reported to Madison County authorities at 12:20 p.m. Saturday that an orange-colored racing cart valued at $350 was taken from his garage after a lock was pried off a door. He said the machine has a 7.5 horsepower engine and a black seat.

Nameoki resolves issue on highway legal fee

A disputed attorney bill for $333 was approved by the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors at its last meeting on a 3-2 vote.

The bill, submitted by Nameoki Township Highway Commissioner Albert Bell, was for two months of attorney services by attorney Nick Vasileff.

Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell questioned whether the bill could be paid, since at a previous meeting the board voted against transferring additional funds into the category for attorney fees in the road and bridge fund.

Bell told the board the bill could be paid from the contingencies category in the road and bridge fund. Whitsell, who opposed the fund transfer, said the addition of the bill on the list just prior to the meeting violates the rules of the town board which require all correspondence and bills be submitted by the Thursday before each meeting. Whitsell also questioned

Bell's authority to hire two attorneys, which he contended depleted the road and bridge fund's category for attorney fees.

He has been objecting for some time to Bell's hiring one attorney to negotiate with the labor union representative of the highway employees, while holding Vasileff on retainer for other legal services.

Bell said Vasileff has assured him his action was legal in hiring a separate attorney for negotiations. Whitsell asked Bell to get a written legal opinion on the question by township officials could have the opinion on file.

After the discussion, Whitsell and Auditor Kenneth Gieson voted against approving the bill and Auditors Norman Hessler, W. Lee Adams and Eugene Gargac voted to approve. The bill was approved on a 3-2 vote.

Antique sale at SIUE library March 12-13

Twenty-eight dealers from three states will participate in the friends of Lovejoy Library seventh annual SIUE Antiques Show and Sale, March 12 and 13 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. All proceeds from the show are used to benefit Lovejoy Library at SIUE.

This year's show includes a wide variety of furniture, china, silver, jewelry, primitives, bronzes and all manner of collectibles. According to Sheila Stinson, executive secretary of the Friends of Lovejoy Library, a new feature of this year's show is a dealer from Shawnee Mission, Kan., who deals in complete sets of Haviland China and replacement service for missing pieces.

Mrs. Stinson said a selection of antique clocks in fine working order and furniture from several periods also will highlight the show and sale.

The Friends of Lovejoy Library will have a booth with books and some rarities and antique prints. Mrs. Stinson said the Friends' "Petite Boutique" will include a colorful assortment of hand-loomed and hand-embroidered Bulgarian items of dress, wall hangings, fabrics and carved wooden boxes, as well as a number of hand-loomed native Peruvian items.

"Last year, patrons from more than 71 cities in Illinois attended the show," Mrs. Stinson said. "We had six states represented."

She said that one of the reasons the SIUE Antique Show and Sale is so popular is because antiques represent a good investment. "We also bring in quality dealers with a good variety and selection of merchandise. It is also a very friendly show with quality patrons as well."

The show will be in Meridian Hall of the SIUE University Center building from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, March 12, and from noon to 6 p.m., Sunday, March 13.

Donations for admission are $1.50 at the door. Advance tickets and admission for SIUE students are $1, and children under 13 are admitted free with an adult. To order tickets Quad-Cityans may contact the Friends of Lovejoy Library at 692-2711.

Ask pure water deadline delay

The steel industry has urged Congress to grant both industry and municipal treatment facilities a five-year extension of present water pollution control deadlines under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

In testimony last week before the House Water Resources Subcommittee, American Iron and Steel Institute spokesman Thomas C. Graham said the present July 1, 1977, deadline mandated by the Control Act is "overly optimistic. Neither the regulators nor those regulated can move that fast."

He pointed out that plants with over 40 percent of the steel industry's capacity do not have final permits and therefore have not reached agreement with authorities on what the 1977 requirements are.

Graham, who is also president and chief executive officer of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., said that, while under the proposed amendments the compliance deadline for municipalities would be pushed back to July 1, 1982, "the problems of industrial dischargers are actually more complicated than those of municipal sources."

He told the subcommittee that "the steel industry has in the past supported and continues to support, the environmental objectives established by Congress."

According to Graham, the most important and most troublesome problems for the steel industry in carrying forward a balanced program of economic growth and a healthy environment are "time and money"—both of which are involved in the industry's request for an extension of present water pollution control deadlines.

"Our money problems are severe, and are made more so by environmental needs, but can be solved in time."

"We are asking that Congress help us provide the time to solve these problems by correcting overly-optimistic deadlines and schedules set in the Federal Water Pollution Control Act."

Graham listed these reasons for the present financial squeeze on the steel industry: "The need to increase existing steelmaking capacity by 30 million tons by the early 1980s."

Very substantial pollution control costs—including an estimated $8 billion for water pollution control alone.

—Severe pressure from steel imports which cut into potential markets.

He also said effluent limitation guidelines which were to have been promulgated by October 1973 were delayed. "Because the technical and administrative complexity of the rulemaking process made it more time-consuming than had been anticipated," he continued, "we have no clear statement even today of the 1977 requirements."

It would be impossible, even with unlimited funds, for plants not now having permits to comply with the July 1, 1977, deadline because the lead time from design to routine operation of steel industry pollution control systems is at least 30 to 36 months, Graham said.

Controversial McCarthy eras recalled

The following is a column by John Tormus, Appleton (Wis.) Post-Crescent editor, on the Appleton area's controversial U.S. senator, the late Joseph McCarthy. Sen. McCarthy was the subject of a national television film last month. The commentary follows:

At the very least, NBC can be accused of a very poor job of journalistic reporting with its production of "Tail Gunner Joe." But more important, the production totally missed what is a great story, a great human drama which contains all the ingredients of rags to riches, human triumph, and then creeping crisis ending in total tragedy.

In other words, they blew it, which is not surprising, because no author yet has told the real story of Joe McCarthy. Let alone Richard Rovere, who wrote his biography shortly after McCarthy's death in 1957 and which NBC used for most of its material.

The network didn't even place a simple telephone call to find out how to pronounce local names like Shawano or Manawa.

Rovere and NBC started out with the premise that the word McCarthyism denotes something evil and therefore that McCarthy must be an evil person. In fact, nothing could be further from the truth.

The other major failing in the TV show was in not placing McCarthy in the context of his time in American political life when the realities of the cold war with Russian Communism were first being impressed on the minds of Americans and when we were first beginning to question whether we had fought the right enemy in World War II.

Given the fact that many Americans today were not yet born in the early 1960s, or at least not yet mindful of such affairs when McCarthy dominated the headlines of the nation's newspapers, it is totally irresponsible for a national television network to present such a poorly documented show.

Joe McCarthy was a gleason of World War II, and he built his political career on his service in the war and the aftermaths of that war.

A farm boy from Grand Chute, he went to work right after grade school, clerked in a grocery store at Manawa. Several years later, at age 20, he decided to return to school, crammed a four-year course into one year at Little Wolf High School, then entered Marquette where he emerged five years later, in 1935, with a law degree.

He set up his practice in Waupun, but moved soon to Shawano, and became entrenched in a political career.

His first pledge as a Democratic candidate for district attorney failed, but in 1939 he defeated incumbent Judge Edgar Werner, for circuit court.

He developed his own version of a farm-to-farm campaign. After he would stop in a small town on a farmer, he would make notes about his place, and then he would write each of them a letter complimenting them on the quality of their farms or their crops or pigs or whatever, and mailed them just a week or so before the election.

McCarthy's inept political instincts thus surfaced early. When World War II erupted, he sought and received a commission as a first lieutenant in the Marines, took a leave of absence from court, and was sent to the Pacific theater as a ground intelligence officer.

On several occasions, he was named as a tail ender on a bomber, had his picture taken at the machine guns, and brought copies home with him to show to his family.

The number of votes he accumulated against Wisconsin's senior senator convinced him that he should go all out against the election as judge in April 1945.

McCarthy's timing was perfect. The La Follette Progressive party in Wisconsin was at the end of its tether, and La Follette decided to run his own Republican campaign, leaving both his former liberal supporters and conservative Republicans.

McCarthy figured that he could draw Democratic votes with his Irish name, and there was a heavy crossover, although most Democrats wanted to nominate McCarthy as an easier candidate to beat in the election.

La Follette decided to ignore his young upstart opponent, and made no campaign at all for the primary. McCarthy, helped by his friends, won easily in the November election.

Let the "rube from Grand Chute," as he sometimes called himself, was in the United States Senate. And for the first four years little was heard from him, no matter how hard he tried.

He fought for veterans' housing, and against sugar rationing, and then he went after the Army for covering up the deaths of soldiers in the Battle of the Bulge.

The attention he drew with this was probably led to the fact that he was the memorable "I hold in my hand," speech at Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 9, 1950, in which he said he had a document listing the names of 206 Communists in the State Department.

The rest of the history is more generally known. For four years, he used the immunity of the Senate floor to make charges against alleged Communists working for the government, or those whom he said protected them, or who condoned them.

And before the press, his charges for opposing senators could track down and repudiate his charges, he was already off on new charges in new territory at different times.

It is safe to say that McCarthy got as many headlines during the period as did President Harry S. Truman or Dwight Eisenhower, and it was headlines he was after.

His thirst for publicity became insatiable. And his charges hit their peak during his campaign for re-election in 1952, which he won easily.

But he touched a local nerve in Appleton during that campaign. Nathan Pusey had been president of Lawrence College and had gone on to become president of Harvard University.

McCarthy charged that Pusey was soft on communism and was harboring Communists on the Lawrence faculty.

But Pusey had lots of friends in Appleton, and one of them was John Reid, then managing editor of the Post-Crescent. John was a close personal friend of McCarthy.

He might even have called him a foster father, and Reid often stayed at the Reid home when visiting in Appleton. For the first time Reid and McCarthy disagreed. Reid telling Joe he had "gone too far."

What does the editor of the hometown newspaper do with a hometown boy like Joe McCarthy? That's the question. You support him, all the way, in the beginning at least.

V.I. Minahan Sr. did, and he was fearful of the situation. Minahan didn't always agree with McCarthy's tactics, but he agreed down the line with his editorial stance. Certainly that was what deprived NBC's "Tail Gunner Joe" of any objectivity.

Apparently that problem still exists today. Certainly that was what deprived NBC's "Tail Gunner Joe" of any objectivity.

At this point, enter a new, young editor of The Post-Crescent, our present publisher, who succeeded his father as editor upon the latter's death in August, 1954. Vic at the time was 33.

He had called the Army-McCarthy hearings, and then on Dec. 2, 1954, the Senate vote to strip McCarthy of his position as editor obviously had to respond.

McCarthy had confided to friends that his liberal leanings made him considerably more critical of McCarthy than his father had been. That he was thus placed in the position of being honest with himself, yet respecting his father's thinking.

He began to detach the newspaper from its previous intimate relationship with McCarthy, and when he wrote editorially of McCarthy's misdeeds, he was not alone. His colleagues, he discussed their findings on the three counts objectively, disagreeing with the Senate's decision on counts of censure, and agreeing with a third.

On that note, said McCarthy deserved condemnation, and that was the first time there was out and out disagreement with McCarthy on the editorial page of The Post-Crescent.

More significantly, the editorial concluded: "One of the disturbing things about Senator McCarthy's career has been the tendency of people to paint him either all black or all white. The passions this tendency has aroused have been illogical and harmful to the country. The people of Wisconsin, especially, from this point on should attempt to assess this man's virtues and faults dispassionately, the way they do any other holder of public office."

Let the fanatics in New York or Washington or Texas or California pillory him or worship him as they wish; but the people of Wisconsin are an example for the rest of the country in the use of horse sense.

Senator McCarthy himself has seemed, of late, to surround himself more and more with the virtues of long hair and a wide-brimmed hat, and to do so in the name of a Communist party.

Only a man influenced by extremists would make the charge that the Communist party committee was the handmaiden of the Communist party.

There is much to be said for the theory that Senator McCarthy's fame was built to a great extent on the blunders of his enemies. It is becoming increasingly apparent that he is in danger of being ruined by the advice of some of his friends.

That prediction became more and more ominous in the next few years. It came to the point that McCarthy no longer accepted advice from old and trusted friends, people like Reid and Urban Van Susteren, and more and more he divorced himself from the people back home.

His ego undermined and then destroyed, McCarthy turned to alcohol for solace. When he died May 2, 1957, the health certificate read, "acute hepatitis, cause unknown," but all his friends knew the cause was alcohol.

This is what Vic wrote in an editorial at McCarthy's death: "We believe there exists ground on which both those who loved Joe McCarthy, and most of those who hated him, can meet and find about the real meaning of his career."

"In order to find this ground, it is necessary to delve beyond his fascinating and distracting personality."

"True, it may be as difficult to do this now as it was when he was alive."

We, the force of his extraordinary personality during his lifetime that caused many people to lose sight of what he was trying to do or at least thought he was trying to do, that obscured the real issues behind his actions and faults, that caused otherwise intelligent people to forget the fundamental problems of the nation and concentrate instead on extreme laudation or extreme vilification of McCarthy the man or McCarthy the symbol."

"Indeed, it often seemed that McCarthy's personality encroached so much upon current events as to deprive the reader of McCarthy's trying to reach."

Apparently that problem still exists today. Certainly that was what deprived NBC's "Tail Gunner Joe" of any objectivity.

Strong city support for much-needed hospital expansion

Members of the Granite City Council acted responsibly in adopting an enabling law under which St. Elizabeth Hospital can raise $18 million in municipal bonds. The city incurs no debt or potential debt, and the savings in interest rate can be substantial for the hospital and the community it serves.

Utility, alley and sewer line revisions also have been authorized by ordinance as necessary steps in the major construction and remodeling program.

An arsewide trauma center and the second largest Illinois hospital in the St. Louis metropolitan area, St. Elizabeth Hospital operates with the lowest daily cost of any non-tax-supported hospital in the entire St. Louis region. Its wide range of services, many of them offered free, are a boon to the Quad-Cities, Madison County and the surrounding area.

With the latest expansion, the hospital will be able to further enhance its already essential role.

Specific benefits of the expansion will include the provision of 172 new jobs, plus the many jobs associated with the construction work; an increase in bed capacity from 421 to 471; a new power plant; a full-service laboratory; improved emergency facilities; creation of a separate psychiatric hospital building; improvement of cardiology service with the introduction of echocardiography; and the addition of a $500,000 total body scanner — a new diagnostic technique permitting better statistical and visual study of brain and organ structure with less radiation.

Compliment to leadership and performance at GC Steel

Transfer of Robert D. McBride from president of Granite City Steel to president of Great Lakes Steel represents a promotion to a larger National Steel Corporation division. It is a high compliment to his leadership here and to the efficient performance of the local division. McBride was with Granite City Steel for 20 years, handling steadily increasing responsibilities.

Also accorded a major promotion is G. Watts Humphrey Jr., Granite City Steel vice-president and controller, who has become president of the Midwest Steel Division. He made many friends here and gained much experience during his more than four years at the local steel mill.

With McBride now in the Detroit area and Humphrey in the Chicago area, James V. Stack has left the Midwest presidency to become president of Granite City Steel. His record indicates a high degree of preparedness for the top executive position here.

Under the guidance of Chairman George A. Stinson and President Howard M. Love, National Steel is moving to maximize its operational effectiveness through these and other managerial changes.

Quad-Cities with National Steel well in its traditional leadership role in one of the most competitive of all the world's industries.

Federal government is moving farther into the 'sunshine'

Federal agencies' closed doors will swing open to the public on March 12 as the result of a new "Government in the Sunshine Law."

Authorized by Senator Lawton Chiles of Florida, it formally declares openness to be the policy of the United States as it affects more than 50 boards and agencies, ranging from the Federal Trade Commission to the Harry S. Truman Scholarship Foundation.

Between the trade commission and scholarship foundation are all such bodies with two or more members, the majority of whom have been appointed by the President with the consent of the Senate. The new law covers not only formal, regular sessions of the boards but also those meetings where a quorum of members gather and discuss business.

Just as importantly, the law prohibits ex parte communications between interested parties and those involved in decision-making positions on the board or agency. Any ex parte communications which do occur have to be recorded and made a part of the public record.

The "sunshine" progress is clearly in the public interest, just as are "sunset" programs under which governmental agencies may remain in existence only by periodically proving a continuing need for their services.

Emergency medical services are vital

Illinois is in the forefront of emergency care nationally with 1,500 paramedics and 16,000 EMTs, but most areas of this state still do not have adequate life support (paramedics).

There are only six communities outside of the metropolitan Chicago area that have operative paramedic programs and only 17 approved advanced life support training programs in the entire state.

Several reasons exist. The Illinois Division of Public Health's EMS Division is sorely understaffed. Many counties are experiencing problems in funding.

In too many communities, self-interest and jurisdictional disputes on the part of potential providers — be they hospitals, fire departments, law enforcement agencies or elected and appointed civic officials — have impeded the forward movement of knowledge of what an advanced life support system can do.

The news media, this paper included, should start a campaign to explain to the people in their communities what EMS is and what it can do for them.

With the exception of those of us who have seen a real-life emergency successfully handled by a paramedic team — or those who have watched the latest emergency on TV — "Emergency" program — John Q. Public has no conception of how much the lifesaving services provided by a paramedic team mean to the ultimate recovery of an accident victim.

This community should get involved in the planning of this type of service. Let's elect officials who know we feel about a good paramedic program in this area.

Let them get the facts and the assistance needed to get our ambulance service started on the right foot. We need a good EMS ambulance service, not just another horizontal taxi to the hospital.

Need crackdown on drunken driving

To the Editor: During a two-week period seven of my friends were in four separate auto accidents involving drunken drivers. Four of my friends were hospitalized; two of them were killed.

It seems to me that in an age of seven-foot TV screens and low-cost pocket computers, modern man could find a way to keep the drunk driver off the road.

Perhaps stricter, well-publicized laws are the answer. There is a Scandinavian country, I believe Denmark, that passed a law five years ago that has brought drunk driver statistics as well as traffic fatalities down to the near zero mark.

That law is a severe penalty for anyone convicted of driving while intoxicated. This may be cruel punishment, but it admirably does the job.

At any social gathering in that country, at least one person with car keys drinks nothing stronger than orange juice. Taxicabs do a booming business at bars by safely bringing home boozers who do not have full control of their capacities.

There are devices that prevent one from starting his or her car if one's reflexes are below that needed to operate a motor vehicle properly. But I do not know of any car manufacturer proposing to add these devices to their cars, nor do I know of any legislation that will make such devices mandatory on cars of the future.

The big problem seems to be human nature. People will do nothing for the common good and sometimes their own good without a little force.

It is against the law for citizens to not pay those taxes that build schools and Interstate highways. Could it be that organized society has to be bullied into taking a pledge to stay away from the steering wheel when they have had too much to drink?

Are drinkers without friends who will keep them out of their cars and on the wagon until they are sober?

The problem is not drinking. We couldn't get rid of that if we wanted to. Prohibition proved that.

Man has been drinking for the past five thousand years but only been driving cars within the last 100 years.

I have been known to tip a few with the gang, but I have enough common sense and integrity to keep out of a driver's seat when I am not up to proper standards.

It is none too soon to live up to that statement. It won't be a difficult thing for me to do, because the saddest thing I have ever seen was the funeral of a young mother and her three-year-old son.

Class mandates add to school costs

To the Editor: The naturally disappointed that Governor Thompson's budget neither fully funds the school and formula nor carry out state-mandated programs.

For the third year in a row, it appears that schools will not receive the full amount authorized in that formula.

The governor's proposal does, of course, provide a modest increase in school funding — but the increase is far short of the full funding. And it leaves hundreds of school districts with no hope of balancing their budgets without cutting educational programs.

The only bright spot in a dismal picture is that we know what the governor's plan for school funding are at an early date. Governor Thompson has assured us that there will be no further cuts.

This budget represents the governor's priorities. Now the legislature will establish its priorities. We are hopeful that further increases will be forthcoming to provide some relief.

We will also urge the State Board of Education and the General Assembly to eliminate costly restrictions and mandated programs imposed on the schools.

We must re-examine such areas as the relative importance of free textbooks and other mandates and innovative programs.

Schools are required to teach so many different subjects that many different subjects of basic education is in jeopardy.

We have to realize that schools cannot continue to cut costs and expand programs at the same time.

For the first time in a long time, we are looking at the need for a general tax increase if schools are to continue to provide the programs and services which the state demands.

Council teamwork bringing progress

To the Editor: To the concerned voters of the Fifth Ward and all Granite City —

Picking responsible and intelligent people to represent you in the interpretation of the laws and the formulation of new ones that govern our lives citywide, is an affair to your choice of an attorney to represent you personally.

The affable, back-slapping, hand-shaking qualifications of ward politicians have in our busy world of today taken a back seat to the real approach and solution of our problems.

During the past year, the 14 councilmen under the able leadership of Mayor Schuler have demonstrated their abilities and leadership and assumed the responsibility of our oath of office to you, the citizens of our city.

Progress is our objective, and to gain this we are working diligently.

Disension, arrogance and other displays of ineptness have been replaced by constructive discussion and the settlement of both the controversial and beneficial issues that have come before the council.

We thank you for the privilege of serving you, and with your continued support will strive to bring emphasis to the word "progress."

Street, drainage, crime problems

To the Editor: Wake up, Granite City. Stand up and look around at our city. It sure is something to behold — messed-up streets and sidewalks, water standing and not enough drainage to take care of it.

I feel that we need a change. How about all the rest of you people? Some new and young blood in our mayor's office and will help a great deal.

It's already been too long since there have been any improvements made in a city our size. Dan Partney can and will do everything within his power to help us all.

He will try his level best to stop or at least slow down our crime rate. He is very interested in our senior citizens and wants to help them in every way possible.

The waiting list for homes for our senior citizens is long and almost impossible to help unless we can get someone who cares enough to try to get funds to build more homes for this group of people to live in.

About the crime rate, we need more police on the force and men who are willing to fight crime in this city. We need trained and skilled men in order to do this.

Our city is falling apart at the seams and, so far, if anything is being done it's very slow. We need youth and ability to get it back on our feet. Most of all, we need someone who cares and loves our city full-time, not part-time.

We need someone that can take our problems to who will listen and understand. It has always helped to have someone that you feel you can talk to and Partney is a person that will listen. He's never too busy to listen to anyone who has a problem.

He's young, yes, but he's full of fight and will be a full-time mayor, 24 hours a day. To me this is important, and it should be to all if they want a decent city to live in.

Our senior citizens need very much to have a place to take their problems.

There are only a very few of our problems. There are many more.

Venice to receive senior citizen van

The Venice City Council last week entered into an agreement with Madison County which will provide limited transportation services to senior citizens.

The program is known as "Helping Hand" and a 12-passenger, specially-equipped bus will be in operation in about two months.

The aldermen will form the policies on the use of the bus. It will be used for elderly persons to go to such places as doctors' offices, grocery stores and similar short trips.

Meetings will be held with the two Venice senior citizens groups to explain the program.

Illinois Bell hikes construction budget

For the eighth straight year, Illinois Bell in 1977 will spend more than a million dollars a day to "back its commitment" to good communications service, President James E. Olson announced in the company's annual report last week.

The company's construction budget for this year is $474 million, up from $437 million in 1976.

Olson, in his annual message, cited a "welcome turnaround" in earnings last year, "accomplished in the face of continuing inflationary pressures and lingering effects from the worst national recession in nearly four decades." He said this was the result of improved productivity, coupled with partial rate relief and aggressive marketing.

"However, our earnings are still inadequate," Olson said. "In fact, they are below the level authorized by the Illinois Commerce Commission, according to its method of measuring earnings. And while our return on equity capital, the yardstick investors use, was 11.46 per cent, that is still short of the 13-14 per cent range we need to finance high quality service in today's economic conditions."

A five per cent increase in rates granted by the Illinois Commerce Commission in February, 1976, was "woefully short of what was needed," Olson said. Continuing inflation plus the need for improved earnings caused the company to file for changes in rates last year.

In July, the company asked for $110 million in new rates, a 6 per cent increase in revenues. About half of the proposed increase would go for taxes. That request, to be decided sometime this year, seeks increases which are primarily on optional customer services, which customers can control by the amount of equipment and calling they do.

During 1976, the company noted a record increase in telephone growth although the total telephones it serves declined slightly because the portion of its territory in Indiana was transferred to Indiana Bell on July 1.

Long distance calling, an indicator of economic conditions, also increased by 8.6 per cent.

Service improvements reported by the company include: An investment of $90 million in more cable and outside telephone facilities, including 1.77 million miles of new wire. Near completion of its conversion of coin phones to "Dial Tone First" which eliminates the need for a coin to dial the operator.

Installation of the "911" emergency number in five more communities, including Chicago, to serve 3,539,000 persons.

Adding six new electronic switching systems with a total capacity of 87,000 customer lines, and extending the capacity of 56 existing ESS exchanges by 22,000 lines.

The report also noted that, despite a decrease in the number of employees, its wage bill still increased by $84.2 million. The work force reduction, achieved through attrition and without layoffs, totaled 1,600 during the past two years. New labor agreements will be negotiated later this year which the company expects will increase its wage bill.

Olson also reported on federal regulatory policies which Bell and independent telephone companies believe will ultimately force large increases in charges to home telephone customers over and above any increase required because of inflation.

The telephone industry wants this threat to be resolved by federal lawmakers and is asking Congress to "clarify the direction of this nation's telecommunications policy through new legislation," Olson said.

"An environment where personal and professional self renewal is not only possible and expected, but demanded, and where resources are committed to this end," the president said.

"Being the best will mean working together toward common goals."

"Being the best means the objective evaluation of students, faculty and administrative staff are made better by encounters with one another. Being the best means that our students develop competence in communications and numeracy—and they have a solid liberal arts base upon which to build their major field of study. Being the best means a total

Excellence and individual growth—goals of SIUE

President Kenneth A. Shaw of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville announced last week to the university community his goals and plans for resolution of the institution's problems and challenges, but reminded his audience that "there is much right with SIUE."

Speaking at a convocation in the Communications Building Theater, with a broadcast by closed-circuit television to other campus locations, the president said, "This focus on problems and challenges is healthy but should not detract from the already many great accomplishments that have been made here."

"In our eagerness to improve this beautiful university, let's not forget its good points, and let's build on these strengths."

"There is a dedicated and talented faculty and staff—let's build on these strengths. And to grow—a lovely campus with plenty of room for growth."

Pres. Shaw challenged the community to work together to make the university the best of its kind, a model for similar institutions to follow.

"We have hardships, we have austerity. But by working together, we can be a model for others to follow. We can become the best. Collectively, we must decide to not settle for less," he said.

The president said the quest for excellence was the top priority of the Problem Identification Process (PIP), a ranking of the institution's major problems and challenges by 156 representatives of university constituencies in a five-hour session held Feb. 11.

For SIUE to be the best, there must be an environment where students can learn and grow, faculty can effectively teach and do research, everyone feels a total commitment to the institution's goals and there is mutual respect and trust.

"An environment where personal and professional self renewal is not only possible and expected, but demanded, and where resources are committed to this end," the president said.

"Being the best will mean working together toward common goals."

"Being the best means the objective evaluation of students, faculty and administrative staff are made better by encounters with one another. Being the best means that our students develop competence in communications and numeracy—and they have a solid liberal arts base upon which to build their major field of study. Being the best means a total commitment of our resources to this end."

"Becoming the best can occur only where there is an environment which encourages pride—pride in one's self, in one's work and in the institution. The best also means that conflict is inevitable and is, indeed, expected—but is used constructively and purposefully, always directed toward issues and not personalities."

"The best requires the development of a climate where colleagues participate in the recommending of policies which affect them; an environment, however, where decisions are made and where there is accountability for decisions."

"A climate where people from all walks of life—all ages, both sexes, all races, from all socio-economic positions—feel comfortable and can thrive; a climate, however, which is not so comfortable that its members avoid personal growth."

And where truth and beauty are appreciated and sought after—an environment where members feel a responsibility for the larger good," the president said.

Dr. Shaw continued, "To be the best, we must know where we want to go. The mission and scope statement of the university needs to be refined and amplified so that we have a clear and agreed-upon roadmap for our common journey."

"It should be unique to us, an institution which is both urban and rural, which has a decided social commitment to the people it serves, an institution which knows that the major way of manifesting this commitment is through a total teaching, research and service effort."

The president said that, in the past six months, a more specific response will be made to each problem and challenge area.

He said agendas for action will be developed with the assistance of various constituency and governance groups. Task forces and study committees will be formed, with goals and completion deadlines indicated.

Singular out problems and challenges, "which best help me articulate my views as to what must be done," Dr. Shaw said the necessary steps to "excellence" include:

—An administration marked by openness, accountability, goal orientation, evaluation and service.

—Firmly establishing internal priorities for budgeting, planning and curriculum, with corresponding reallocations and a determination "to get the most of the money we have."

—An interim plan for evaluating existing facilities and for the development of temporary arrangements "which will allow us to improve the quality of life of the university community now" instead of waiting several years for the completion of capital budget projects.

—Creating an environment more hospitable to student growth and development... removing every obstacle which detracts from student development... providing classes, support services and extra-class experiences which will be mutually supporting and focus on student growth.

—An evaluation system that ensures the university's ability to systematically assess student needs and then direct its resources accordingly.

—A governance system which involves people meaningfully, with maximum participation but at the same time efficiently utilizing human energy.

—An evaluation of the East St. Louis Center operation with the understanding that the center is an integral part of the university's commitment to the region and will remain so.

—Improving marketing and transportation efforts "from A to Z," and so commit our resources "to achieve improvement in student recruitment and retention."

—A major focus toward attracting older adults who desire part-time study.

—External relations based on truthfulness, objectivity, careful coordination and liaison with other state agencies.

—A continuing strong commitment to affirmative action.

—A complete study and evaluation of collective bargaining, but "with or without it, maintaining and improving upon a collegial system of governance."

—Ensuring personnel policies and practices that reinforce the institution's mission while doing everything possible to improve morale by fair distribution of salary money and providing better internal communications.

WOMAN BUMPS HEAD Debbie Modlin, 1944 Lynn Place, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for injuries sustained in an auto accident last week. She bumped her head on the steering wheel.

Steam line at Coolidge develops leak

A major leak started Sunday night in an underground steam line between Granite City High School South and Coolidge Junior High School, but the leak did not hamper the operation of either school.

Warm temperatures made it possible to have school at Coolidge, even though the steam heat had to be turned off temporarily while a patch was applied to the steam line. Coolidge is heated by steam from boilers at GCIS South.

The Granite City Board of Education voted last week to seek bids on replacing the underground steam line due to several leaks which have developed.

A tall column of white steam could be seen in the cool air on Monday rising above the Coolidge building.

Sentenced to 2 to 6 years in prison

Odie Cross Jr., 50, of the 1100 block of Logan St., Venice, was sentenced Friday in St. Clair Circuit Court to serve two to six years in Menard State Prison for allegedly selling heroine to a federal agent in East St. Louis.

Cross was convicted last month by a jury in Belleville and the sentence was pronounced by Circuit Judge John H. Hoban.

A federal agent testified he was conducting an investigation into another case when Cross approached him and offered to sell him heroin.

Federal agents used their own money to purchase the drug because no agency funds were available at that time, he related.

3 youths flee

Three youths were seen breaking a window of the auto of Dave Edgington, 4113 Old Alton Road, parked at Hobes' Restaurant, 3675 Nameoki Road, at 6:35 p.m. Sunday.

A witness leaving the restaurant saw the boys, who fled before they could remove a car stereo from Edgington's car. A large rock was used to break the passenger side window of the car.

All-city band festival in May

The Granite City School District will sponsor its fifth All-City Band Festival on Saturday, May 21.

Three bands will perform in the festival, including a combined high school band, a junior high band, and an elementary school band.

Each band will be comprised of a select number of students from all bands in the Granite City district. About 300 students will participate in the festival.

with each of the three groups presenting separate programs of music.

Auditions and rehearsals will be under way soon. Local band directors will be in charge until the day of the concert, when the guest conductor will arrive to work with the students for the evening program.

Harold L. Hilmyer, director of bands at Eastern Illinois University at Charleston, will serve as the 1977 guest conductor.

He joined the Eastern Illinois faculty in 1972. An assistant professor of music, he specializes in cornet and trumpet.

Madison schedules teacher dismissals

The Madison Board of Education at its Thursday night meeting approved a resolution providing for the dismissal of 19 first and second-year teachers at the end of the current school year.

Most of the teachers receiving dismissal notices will be rehired when available funds and enrollment figures for the 1977-78 school year are determined, according to a board spokesman.

In other personnel action, the board hired Larry Graham as the Madison High School tennis coach. Graham currently is MHS basketball coach and a physical education teacher.

The board also approved the screening committee for the position of school community information coordinator to begin screening applicants;

Van driver hurt

Edward Meyer, 22, of 1525 Fourth St., Madison, was injured when his van and the auto of Ronnie Liggett, 2116 Dewey Ave., collided at 15th Street and Madison Avenue during the weekend. Liggett was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way while making a left turn from 15th Street.

Meyer went to St. Elizabeth Hospital where x-rays were taken of pain to his left wrist and forearm. He also sustained a bruise to his right hand. He was released for follow-up treatment by a doctor.

REINHARDT—Realtor Sells—BETTER LIVING!

Tells of inauguration trip

An account of the inauguration of President Jimmy Carter was presented by Kiwanian Ronald Coleman to members of the Breakfast Kiwanis Club at their Thursday meeting in Charlie's Restaurant.

Coleman showed slides taken while he and his wife, Barbara, attended.

Coleman reported there was standing room at the inauguration and that television viewers probably had a much better view. He said being there and being invited gave them a sense of participation.

In the evening they attended one of the seven inaugural balls. Coleman commented that the parade left "a very deep and gratifying feeling" with him and his wife.

The traffic, he said, was so bad the President and the Vice President were three hours late.

While they were in Washington, a retired Congressman Kenneth Gray of Illinois took them on a tour of the city which included the Pentagon building where 30,000 people are employed. Among other places visited were: National "Visitors" Museum, National Space and Aeronautic Museum, Arlington National Cemetery, Lincoln and Kennedy sites and several other national landmarks.

Kiwanis President Herbert Carman announced that he, George Teller and Sherman Smith are planning to attend the Wood River Kiwanis Club and they needed one other member to go with them Thursday.

Kiwanian Glenn Wright, better known as "Officer Friendly," explained the details of the Tuesday, March 22, benefit basketball game in the Granite City High School South gym.

The game will see the Granite City police and firemen join forces against the St. Louis Football Cardinals.

Tickets are $2 each and admit one adult or two children. Proceeds of the game go to the "Officer Friendly Athletic Fund."
